GAME TIME
Kickoff for the 2011 BCS Championship Game is scheduled for 5:30 PT at University of Phoenix Stadium with a live telecast on ESPN and ESPN 3D. A live radio broadcast will also be available across the Oregon Sports Network and on XM and Sirius satellite radio.

THE SERIES
• The Ducks and Tigers will be meeting for the first time.
• UO is 4-4 all-time against schools from the Southeastern Conference, but has won the past three meetings vs. the SEC. Oregon defeated Tennessee, 48-13, earlier this season in Knoxville, and beat Mississippi State twice - 36-13 at home in 2002 and 42-34 in Starkville in '03.

QUICK HITS
• In capturing it's second consecutive Pac-10 title, UO became the first conference team to go undefeated in Pac-10 play since the start of round robin play in 2006 and the first to ever win nine league games.
• The Ducks' 12-game winning streak is the longest in school history, besting an 11-game win streak in 2001-02.
• UO defeated Colorado, 38-16, in the 2002 Fiesta Bowl - its only other postseason trip to Arizona.
• The Ducks have won three straight games in the Grand Canyon State with wins over Arizona State in Tempe in 2008 and '10, and one against Arizona in Tucson in '09.
• SO RB LaMichael James needs 40 rushing yards to equal Jonathan Stewart's UO season record of 1,722, set in 2007, and 68 yards to tie Derek Loville for first on the career list with 3,296.
• Oregon has not trailed in any game this season entering the final quarter and are 16-0 when leading after halftime under Chip Kelly.

HEAD COACH CHIP KELLY
Oregon's 30th head coach, who in 2009 became the first in Pac-10 history to win an outright conference title in his first season at the helm, followed that feat with a second conference crown while securing the program's first trip to the BCS Championship Game. The Manchester, N.H., native has guided his team to more wins (22) in his first two years in the Pac-8/10 than any coach in conference history. Recognized as Pac-10 coach of the year for the second time in as many seasons, Kelly has been named the recipient of four national coach of the year awards this year: AP, Eddie Robinson, Sporting News and Walter Camp. He's overseen the team's first 12-win season and has the Ducks riding a school-record 12-game winning streak heading into the title game. In his first head coaching job at any level, Kelly has a mark of 22-3, 17-1 in Pac-10 play. His .880 overall winning percentage is the highest in school history and his .944 percentage in conference play is the best in Pac-10 history.

TOPS IN THE NATION
The Ducks lead the nation in scoring offense (43.3) and punt returns (18.2). Oregon also ranks among the top 5 in total offense (2nd, 537.5), turnovers gained (2nd, 35), rushing (4th, 303.8), opponent 4th down pct. (4th, 23.8%), red zone defense (5th, 67.6%) and sacks allowed (5th, 0.67). Individually, SO RB LaMichael James is first in rushing yards per game (152.9) and scoring (12.0), and seventh in all-purpose yards (168.1); SO CB Cliff Harris is first passes defended (1.67), second in punt returns (19.5) and tied for 14th in interceptions per game (0.42); SR DE Kenny Rowe is tied for fifth in fumbles forced (.33); SR LB Casey Matthews and FR LB Boseko Lokombo are tied for 11th in fumbles recovered (0.25).

LEADERS OF THE PAC
After the conclusion of college football's regular season, Oregon leads the Pac-10 in 11 of 33 statistical categories: Scoring offense (43.3), total offense (537.5), rushing offense (303.8), rushing defense (117.6), pass efficiency defense (101.7), punt returns (18.2), first downs (26.8), opponent 3rd-down conversions (33.5), opponent 4th-down conversions (23.8%), on-side kicks (1-1, 100%) and on-side kicks against (0-1, 0%). Individually, SO RB LaMichael James is the top rusher (152.9), scorer (12.0) and all-purpose runner (168.1) in the Pac-10; SO CB Cliff Harris leads the conference in passes defended (1.67) and punt return average (20.9), and is tied for the lead in interceptions (0.42); SO FS John Boyett is tied for the lead in interceptions (0.42); SR DE Kenny Rowe is tied for first in fumbles forced (0.33); SR LB Casey Matthews and FR LB Boseko Lokombo are tied for the lead in fumbles recovered (0.25).

VS. THE TOP 10
Since 1999, the Ducks are 9-9 against top 10 opposition, including wins in five out of the last seven. Oregon is 3-1 against the top 10 under Chip Kelly, with the lone defeat coming against No. 8 Ohio State in the 2010 Rose Bowl.

VS. THE TOP 25
The Ducks are 3-0 against top 25 teams this season. Last year, Chip Kelly's first as Oregon head coach, the Ducks were 4-2 against top 25 competition. UO's only loss to a non-ranked team during the Kelly era came at Stanford on Nov. 7, 2009. The Cardinal became ranked the following week as a result of their victory.

JAMES IS UNANIMOUS ALL-AMERICA
SO RB LaMichael James became Oregon's first unanimous All-America after being selected to the first team of all five teams formally recognized by the NCAA - AFCA, AP, FWAA, Sporting News and Walter Camp Football Foundation. James was one of 10 players to earn the unanimous distinction this year and the only skill player on offense other than Oklahoma State wideout Justin Blackmon. UO's only consensus All-America players prior to 2010 were halfback Mel Renfro in 1961 and defensive tackle Haloti Ngata in 2005.

DOAK WALKER AWARD GOES TO JAMES
SO RB LaMichael James won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back, more than meeting the award's criteria of making extraordinary contributions to his team while exhibiting characteristics of sportsmanship and fair play associated with the former SMU All-America and 1948 Heisman Trophy winner. James is the first Oregon player to win the Doak Walker and fourth Pac-10 back in award's 21-year history.

HARRIS NAMED CONSENSUS ALL-AMERICA

SO CB Cliff Harris was named a consensus All-America as a punt returner/all-purpose player after being named first team All-America as a returner by the FWAA and Sporting News, and second team as a cornerback by the AP. He is just the fourth consensus pick all-time at UO and the first to earn All-America accolades as a specialist

THOMAS FINALIST FOR MANNING AWARD

After initially being left off the watch list for both of college football's major quarterback awards, SO QB Darron Thomas was named one of ten finalists for the Manning Award, presented by the All-State Sugar Bowl. The annual award honors the top quarterback in college football including the bowl season. Thomas, who is unbeaten as a starter, also made the semifinalist cut for the Davey O'Brien Award. The Manning Award will be announced Wednesday, Jan. 19, in New Orleans.

KELLY COACH OF THE YEAR TIMES FOUR

Second-year head coach Chip Kelly was named AP Coach of the Year on Dec. 21, his fourth such national honor of 2010. Already this season's recipient of the Eddie Robinson, Sporting News and Walter Camp national coach of the year awards, while earning his second Pac-10 coaching honor in as many seasons, Kelly is also still a finalist for the Paul "Bear" Bryant Award and Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year.

SCORING AVALANCHE

With one game left to play, the 2010 Oregon Ducks have already set a new school standard for scoring by putting up 592 points. The previous mark was 545 set in 2008.

LIGHTNING YELLOW

Of the Ducks' 71 scoring drives resulting in touchdowns, 35 have taken five plays or less and 24 have lasted 56 seconds or less.

DUAL THREAT DUCKS

While Oregon is enjoying its most successful season on the field, the same can be said for the 2010 Ducks off it. A program-record 58 players achieved a 3.0 or higher grade point average for the recently completed fall term. Individually, SO RB LaMichael James and JR TE David Paulson are two of just four Pac-10 players to win both All-Pac-10 and Pac-10 All-Academic awards this season.

PRO BOWLERS

The Ducks were the first team in the Pac-10 to become bowl eligible in 2010, a feat they accomplished for the sixth straight year. In Glendale, Oregon will visit its 18th bowl in 22 seasons, the eighth-most appearances in college football over that time span and more than any other Pac-10 team.

FIRST CLASS

With 41 wins since the start of 2007, this year's seniors have surpassed the 1998 to 2001 group (38 wins) as the winningest class in 115 years of Oregon Football. Heading into the BCS National Championship Game, the class has an overall mark of 41-10, 29-7 in Pac-10 play.

TRUE DUCKS

Five seniors, part of UO's record-setting class, will play in their 52nd game on Jan. 10, equaling former TE Ed Dickson - now a member of the Baltimore Ravens - for the most games ever played in an Oregon uniform. The five are DT Brandon Bair, CB Talmadge Jackson III, WR Jeff Maehl, LB Spencer Paysinger and DE Kenny Rowe. Jackson, Maehl and Rowe are true seniors, while Bair and Paysinger utilized a redshirt season in 2006.

TOP DUCKS

The Ducks climbed to No. 1 in the nation for the first time in school history on Oct. 17, when they earned the top spot in the AP Top 25, USA Today (coaches) and Harris polls. Still No. 1 in the coaches poll, Oregon has now spent 13 straight weeks in the top 5, which is its longest stretch ever.

FAST STARTS

UO is 12-0 for the first time in school history, setting a new single-season winning streak and overall streak (last 5 of 2001, first 6 of '02) in the process.

SACKTOWN U.S.A.

Quarterback sacks, for and against, have been a big statistic for the 2010 Ducks. Oregon is third in the Pac-10 and tied for 19th nationally, averaging 2.58 sacks per game, while allowing only eight sacks all season, good for 5th in the NCAA. 11 different players have gotten in on the action and all have multiple sacks, led by SR DE Kenny Rowe with 6.0. Rowe's 22.5 career sacks are good for sixth all-time at UO.

DUCKS SET RUSHING MARKS

With 3,646 rusing yards to date, Oregon has bettered the previous school standard of 3,641 set in 2008. The Ducks also set a new single-game record, rolling up 528 yards in the win over Portland State to crush the previous mark - 465 yards at Washington in 2007 - by 63 yards.

PADDING HIS STATS

After gaining 134 rushing yards at Oregon State Dec. 4, SO RB LaMichael James has now eclipsed the 100-yard rushing mark a UO-record 18 times in his career. He has surpassed the 100-yard pinnacle nine times this season and 15 times in 18 career Pac-10 games.

200 TIMES THREE

SO RB LaMichael James has broken the 200-yard rushing barrier three times this season, rolling up 227 vs. Portland State, 239 at USC and a Pac-10 season-high 257 vs. Stanford. His performance against the Cardinal ranks second on the UO single-game ledger, while his efforts vs. the Trojans and Vikings are sixth and seventh, respectively, on Oregon's all-time list. James is second in career 200-yard games behind Reuben Droughns (1998 (3), '99 (1)), who holds the school record with four, and tied Droughns' mark of three in one season. The 200-yard mark has been topped only 17 times in program history.

LMJ 3000

It only took LaMichael James 16 career games to reach 2,000 rushing yards for his career, going over the milestone Sept. 25 at Arizona State. Seven games later - Nov. 26 vs. Arizona - James passed the 3,000-yard marker, becoming only the second player in UO history to accomplish the feat. Now with 3,228, the sophomore from Texarkana, Texas, stands 68 yards shy of Derek Loville's (1986-89) Oregon record of 3,296.

LaRECORD WATCH

Now with 1,682 rushing yards on the season, SO RB LaMichael James set a new career high to rank second on the all-time season rushing list. He needs 40 yards in the season finale to match Jonathan Stewart's Oregon record of 1,722, set in 2007.

KING JAMES

SO RB LaMichael James has scored at least one touchdown in 10 of 11 games this season and has 36 scores in 24 career games (35 rush, 1 rec). His 21 rushing TDs on the season broke LeGarrette Blount's former record of 17 in 2008, and his 35 career scoring totes are second all-time behind Derek Loville's 41 from 1986-89. James has 132 points on the year, good for first on the UO single-season record list after passing former kicker Nathan Villegas, who had 117 in 1998. On the Oregon career scoring list, the back ranks fifth with 216 points.

PRIORITY MAEHL

Perhaps lost a bit due to LaMichael James' All-America caliber season is the fact that SR WR Jeff Maehl is having one of the best years of any receiver in Oregon history. With a game left to play, Maehl has already set an new UO single-season record with 12 receiving touchdowns and he set the longest touchdown streak by an Oregon receiver with a scoring grab in nine straight games, breaking Steve Bunker's former mark of seven set in 1965. His 68 receptions are the most since Jaison Williams had the same number in 2006, and he is within range of Samie Parker's Oregon record of 77 in '03. With 943 yards, Maehl is on pace to become only the eighth Duck ever, and the first since Demetrius Williams in '05, with 1,000 receiving yards in a season.

TOUCHDOWN THOMAS

If you based a quarterback's ability exclusively on wins and touchdowns, it could be argued that SO QB Darron Thomas is having the greatest season of any signal caller in Oregon history. Having already surpassed Joey Harrington's 11 wins in 2001, Thomas ranks second all-time in TD passes for a season with 28 and overall touchdowns with 33.

Season Passing Touchdowns

1. Akili Smith, 32 (1998)

FASTEST TO 1,000

SO RB LaMichael James became the fastest Oregon player to reach the 1,000-yard rushing mark for a season in terms of games played, passing the marker in his seventh game. It took him 140 attempts to do it, which ranks second all-time behind LeGarrette Blount, who hit 1,000 in 137 carries (13 games) in 2008. Three players previously eclipsed the mark in eight games.

THREE'S COMPANY

On his 42-yard touchdown run in the second quarter at USC, SO RB LaMichael James became the third UO player with two 1,000-yard seasons in a career, matching Onterrio Smith (2001, '02) and Maurice Morris (2000, '01).

DOUBLE-DIGIT VICTORIES

Oregon has recorded its third straight and sixth overall season of double-digit wins in school history - all since 2000. The Ducks are have set a new record for victories in a season at 12, as well as wins over two-year (22), three-year (32), four-year (41) and five-year (48) spans.

EXPLOSION PLAYS

Through 12 games, the Ducks have 53 plays from scrimmage of 25 yards or longer, 22 of 40 or more yards, eight of 60 or more yards and four of 70-plus yards. Of the 53 big plays, 27 have resulted in touchdowns.

TURNOVER CENTRAL

Oregon is second among FBS schools with 35 takeaways on the season (20 INT, 15 FR), which is one off the school record of 36 set in 1968.

PAC-10, NAT'L PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

UO players have received weekly or national awards after all but four games this season (Portland State, Washington, Arizona and Oregon State). The latest was SO CB Cliff Harris being selected Pac-10 player of the week (special teams) and CFPA national punt returner performer of the week after returning a punt 64 yards for a touchdown, giving the Ducks their first lead and one they would never relinquish in a road victory over Cal Nov. 13. Harris joined Dennis Dixon in 2007 as the only Ducks to win the conference's weekly honor three times in one season.

FAB FROSH

After the first couple of days of preseason camp, it was evident that true freshman receiver Josh Huff had too much talent not to play immediately. That's saying something, considering he would be coming into a team returning nine starters on offense, including all three wide receivers. The former USA Junior National Team member has scored five touchdowns and ranks second on the team with 1,051 all-purpose yards. Among his big plays are an 85-yard rushing touchdown, a 54-yard touchdown catch and an 80-yard kick return.

* Oregon Opponents in Bold

DARRON DIGS THE DESERT

The first Pac-10 start by SO QB Darron Thomas produced one of the best games of his young career. Thomas set then-career highs of 260 passing yards, 19 completions and 33 pass attempts in the win at Arizona State. He also tossed a pair of touchdowns and ran for another score.

MAEHL JOINS ELITE LIST

With 68 receptions on the season, SR WR Jeff Maehl has broken into the top 10 on Oregon's all-time list. Maehl now has 169 career receptions, good for fourth all-time, and as caught at least one pass in 33 consecutive games. The true senior from Paradise, Calif., has played the last 41 games at receiver - all starts - after spending the first 10 of his career at safety.

JOIN THE CLUB

SR RB Remene Alston Jr. and SO RB Kenjon Barner etched their names in the UO record book by each surpassing 100 yards rushing for the first time in the win vs. New Mexico Sept. 4. Alston set career highs with 21 carries and 110 yards, as did Barner, who rushed 17 times for a net of 147. SO QB Darron Thomas joined the club Oct. 2 vs. Stanford with 117 yards on 15 carries and FR WR Josh Huff became Oregon's fifth different 100-yard rusher of the season with his career-best 103 yards on three carries vs. Arizona Nov. 26.

CAPTAIN COURAGEOUS

SR QB Nate Costa injured his right knee in the win over Washington Nov. 6 and will miss the remainder of the season. Costa, a team captain who lost his redshirt freshman and sophomore seasons due to injury and overcame three knee surgeries, battled back to play in 21 straight games as the backup QB and primary holder the past two years. His hold of a bad snap on a game-tying PAT at Arizona in 2009 earned him Pac-10 player of the week honors on special teams (the first ever awarded to a holder) and kept Oregon's Rose Bowl run alive. He also started and helped the Ducks to a key road win at UCLA during their '09 Pac-10 championship season. Earlier this season, he came off the bench for an injured Darron Thomas at Washington State and completed 13 of 15 passes for 151 yards and a touchdown, while running for 84 yards and another score in the road victory. Already a UO graduate with a degree in Sociology, the Hilmar, Calif., native finished his career with a 70.4 percent completion rate (50 of 71), 556 passing yards and two touchdowns against one interception, and 195 yards and three scores on the ground.

ESPN COLLEGE GAMEDAY RETURNS

ESPN College GameDay produced its weekly college football preview show from the University of Oregon prior to the Stanford game, marking the fifth appearance in Eugene by the popular show which features Chris Fowler, Lee Corso, Kirk Herbstreit, Desmond Howard and Erin Andrews. Oregon has a 4-1 record when hosting GameDay and has won three straight dating to 2007. Additionally, the GameDay stop at USC Oct. 30 involved the Ducks as did the Dec. 4 Civil War in Corvallis.

CLEAN SHEET

The 72-0 result vs. New Mexico Sept. 4 was the Ducks' first shutout since blanking Stanford 35-0 on Oct. 25, 2003. With another shutout of Portland State (69-0) Sept. 18, the Ducks recorded multiple shutouts in a single season for the first time since 1964.

THE GANG'S ALL HERE

Oregon's 2010 defense was billed as a swarming, deep crew during preseason camp and that description has proven to be spot-on. The Ducks saw 29 players make a tackle vs. New Mexico, with 20 of those guys recording multiple stops, and 26 players credited with stops at Tennessee. Against Portland State, 32 players made the defensive stat sheet with 30 making at least one tackle.

ARE YOU EXPERIENCED?

At the start of last season, UO had 18 returning players with starting experience. This year, 27 such student-athletes came in with at least one starting assignment under their belts. Last year's returners totaled 174 career starts while this year's returners totaled 279, an average of 12.7 per man on the 2-deep depth chart.

BARNER BURNER

SO RB Kenjon Barner equaled UO's modern scoring record with 5 touchdowns (4 rush, 1 rec) vs. New Mexico Sept. 4, tying Saladin McCullough, who ran for five scores vs. Arizona, Nov. 9, 1996. Barner scored all 30 of his points before halftime, surpassing his 2009 season total of 24 (3 rush TD, 1 ret TD).

ALL-PURPOSE BACK

Just 23 games into his college playing career, SO RB Kenjon Barner has already climbed onto Oregon's career list for kick return yardage, ranking sixth with 1,226 yards. The Riverside, Calif., product also ranks ninth all-time in punt return average (12.6) and has already surpassed 2,000 all-purpose yards to date (2,518).

MORE RECORD INK FOR BARNER

The 80-yard punt return for a touchdown by SO RB Kenjon Barner at Tennessee tied for the eighth-longest such return in school history.

PLAYMAKER

SO CB Cliff Harris has made the most of his 20 appearances in an Oregon uniform. Brought out of a potential redshirt midway through last season, the former U.S. Army All-American is the team leader among active players in career passes defended with 29 (6 INT, 23 PBU). Add to that his first "pick 6" on a 76-yard return at Tennessee, and a Pac-10 record-tying four punt returns for touchdowns this season, and you have a player with a career's worth of big plays in less than two full seasons.

BIG PLAY PAULSON

JR TE David Paulson, who had three grabs for a team-high 48 yards in the win vs. Arizona Nov. 26, has 33 career receptions - all but six resulting in either a first down or a touchdown. He ranks second on the team in receiving yards this season with 370 and is averaging 16.8 yards per catch for his career.

AUTZEN ADVANTAGE

The Ducks have won 16 straight games at Autzen Stadium, dating to 2008, which is the second longest streak in stadium history. UO won a record 23 straight between 1997 and 2001. Oregon has won its last 13 Pac-10 contests at home since falling in overtime against Oregon State in the 2007 Civil War.

HOUSE OF LOUD

With six sold out crowds in as many games this season, including a State of Oregon record 60,017 vs. Washington on Nov. 6, Oregon has sold out Autzen Stadium (cap. 54,000) for 74 consecutive games, dating to 1999.

KELLY AT AUTZEN

Head coach Chip Kelly made his sideline debut at Autzen Stadium Sept. 12, 2009 (W 38-36 vs. Purdue) after spending the prior two seasons calling plays from a booth high above the field as the team's offensive coordinator. Since Kelly's arrival in 2007, the Ducks are 23-3 at Autzen, averaging 45.2 points per home game.

RECORD ROUT

Oregon's 72-0 rout of New Mexico on Sept. 4 produced a fair number of school records, including 720 yards of total offense to best the old mark of 694 at Oregon State in the 2008 Civil War. The Ducks equaled the program's modern scoring record with 72 points while setting a new modern record for scoring margin (also 72 points), the most since a 72-10 victory vs. Nevada, Sept. 18, 1999. It was UO's most points overall since a 97-0 win over Willamette (Ore.) in 1916.

TWO OUT OF THREE AIN'T BAD

With 668 yards of total offense against Portland State, Oregon has recorded two of its three most prolific offensive games in history this season. The yardage against the Vikings ranks third in school history behind 720 vs. New Mexico and 694 at Oregon State in 2008.

FIRST-TIME STARTERS

Only three new starters took the field in Oregon's season opener vs. New Mexico, led by SO QB Darron Thomas as the only first-time starter for the offense. On defense, JR DE Terrell Turner and SR DT Zac Clark made opening assignments for the first time. True FR K Eric Solis handled kicking duties in his first-ever game at Autzen. Others to make their first career starts this year are FR DT Wade Keliikipi, and SO DE Dion Jordan, both vs. UCLA, and FR WR Josh Huff vs. Arizona.

CLIFF NOTES

Of the many records set in Oregon's lopsided 72-0 victory over New Mexico to start the season, none may hold up longer than the mark set by SO CB Cliff Harris, who became the first UO player to return two punts for touchdowns in a single game. The Fresno, Calif., product replaced regular returner SO RB Kenjon Barner, who was given the rest of the day off with UO on top 42-0 in the second quarter, and fielded the first two punts of his career, taking one back for 61 yards and the next for 64. Harris, who now holds Oregon's season and career records for punt return TDs with four, tied the conference single-game record, which was last accomplished by USC's Mike Garrett in 1965 vs. Cal (also Sam Brown, UCLA vs. Stanford, 1954).

CAN I GET AN ENCORE

After claiming its third Pacific-10 Conference championship to conclude the first decade of the 21st century (T-'00, '01 and '09), Oregon set its sights on and claimed a ninth league title in 2010.

COACHING CONTINUITY

An overlooked facet of Oregon's success has been the continuity of its coaching staff. Although second-year head coach Chip Kelly is only in his fourth season as part of the Ducks' program, the core of the staff has remained intact over the course of three different head coaches. Running backs coach Gary Campbell is in his 28th year on the Oregon staff, which equals the longest tenure of any Oregon assistant football coach in school history. In addition, offensive line coach and running game coordinator Steve Greatwood has spent a quarter century on the Ducks' coaching staff, linebackers coach Don Pellum is in his 23rd season, while defensive coordinator Nick Aliotti has 21 seasons at Oregon over three separate stints.

CHECK YOUR LOCAL LISTINGS

The Ducks had nine of their 12 regular-season games nationally televised as part of the Pac-10's network television contract. Starting with the Sept. 11 road opener at Tennessee on ESPN2, other TV games included Arizona State (Sept. 25, FSN), Stanford (Oct. 2, ABC/ESPN2), UCLA (Oct. 21, ESPN/ESPN 3D), USC (Oct. 30, ABC), Washington (Nov. 6, ABC), at Cal (Nov. 13, Versus), Arizona (Nov. 26, ESPN) and at Oregon State (Dec. 4, ABC). In addition, televised home games vs. New Mexico (Sept. 4) and Portland State (Sept. 18), and a road game at Washington State (Oct. 9), were picked up for regional broadcasts by the Oregon Sports Network via Comcast SportsNet Northwest.

2010 PAC-10 PRESEASON POLL

The University of Oregon received the top spot in the Pac-10 preseason media poll. The defending Pac-10 champions garnered 15 first-place from the 35 West Coast media members who participated in the poll. The Ducks earned the top spot for just the second time since the poll began in 1961. Oregon was also a preseason favorite in 2001, going on to win the Pac-10. The media poll has correctly selected the Conference Champion in 27 of 50 previous polls, including 10 of the last 11.

Game #1 • Sept. 4

NEW MEXICO 0
#11 OREGON 72

Eugene, Oregon (59,104)
Autzen Stadium
69 degrees, mostly sunny

EUGENE, Ore. — The Ducks didn't need LaMichael James against New Mexico, and a first-year starting quarterback certainly didn't look like one either.

Kenjon Barner and Darron Thomas seamlessly filled the roles of running back and quarterback for No. 11 Oregon in its 72-0 blowout of New Mexico.

Barner scored five touchdowns, four on the ground and another via a pass from Thomas. He ran for a career-high 147 yards as Oregon racked up a school-record 720 yards in total offense.

Thomas completed 13 of 23 passes for 220 yards and two scores in his collegiate starting debut.

Oregon's point total tied the Autzen Stadium record the Ducks set in 1999 against Nevada.

New Mexico was also looking for a fresh start. The Lobos were 1-11 last season under coach Mike Locksley. But the Lobos, who managed just 107 total yards on offense, were no match for the defending Pac-10 champions. B.R. Holbrook made his debut as New Mexico's starting quarterback and completed just 11 of 24 passes for 70 yards with two interceptions.

Barner subbed for James, who was fulfilling a one-game suspension, but it had no effect on the outcome.

Last season James grabbed national attention by rushing for a team-high 1,546 yards, setting a new record for freshmen in the Pac-10. He averaged 6.7 yards and added 14 TDs to earn the league's freshman of the year honors.

Also a return specialist, Barner had 1,553 all-purpose yards last season. He had 225 against New Mexico, and his one catch was a 60-yard catch and run from Thomas in the second quarter.

Standing in for Barner on the return team was sophomore Cliff Harris, who returned two punts for touchdowns, an Oregon single-game record.

Thomas played in five games as a true freshman in 2008, completing 16 of 33 passes for 268 yards and three touchdowns. Called upon when Oregon was hit by a slew of injuries, Thomas came close to leading the Ducks to a come-from-behind victory against Boise State that season before redshirting in 2009.

Game #2 • Sept. 11

#7 OREGON 48
TENNESSEE 13

Knoxville, Tennessee (102,035)
Neyland Stadium
83 degrees, rainy

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. — When Tennessee started slowing down, LaMichael James and Oregon picked up the pace.

James ran for 134 yards, including a 72-yard touchdown in his season debut, and No. 7 Oregon scored 45 consecutive points to beat Tennessee 48-13.

The Pac-10's leading returning rusher had only 27 yards at halftime after being targeted by the Volunteers' defense for the entire first half. He ran for 25 yards on five carries in the Oregon's first second-half drive and then broke several tackles on the 72-yard touchdown run on the first play of the subsequent drive for the Ducks, who notched their second win of the year.

James picked up where he left off a year ago, rushing for a Pac-10 freshman record 1,546 yards in 2009.

Tennessee (1-1) went up 13-3 in the first half after an hour-long delay for lightning but fell apart after James' long run.

Only fans in green and yellow remained in Neyland Stadium by the time Oregon was done scoring the most points by a Tennessee opponent at home since Florida beat the Vols 59-20 in 2007. It was the most points by a non-conference opponent since Washington State won 52-24 in 1988.

The Vols were penalized for having an ineligible receiver on one play and a false start on another. A pass by Matt Simms intended for Zach Rogers was cleanly picked off by Cliff Harris, who returned it 76-yards for another score to give Oregon a 27-13 lead with 6:27 left in the third quarter.

Simms, who completed 15 of 29 for 151 yards, struggled to connect with his receivers. Tauren Poole and backup David Oku couldn't get their footing, and the Vols picked up only three more first downs.

Kenjon Barner, who scored five touchdowns filling in for James as the Ducks' No. 1 tailback in a 72-0 win against New Mexico in the previous week's season opener, took a punt back 80 yards for a touchdown that made it 41-13 with 11:39 left.

"They were a great team, and they just beat (us) tonight," Tennessee linebacker Nick Reveiz said. "I feel like their offense set such a tempo. As a defense you have to match that, and if you don't then you're going to get ran right by. And that's what they did to us."

It was a far different story in the first half.

The Vols were buoyed by a 48-yard field goal from Daniel Lincoln on their first drive and immediately got the ball back when Barner fumbled the following kickoff after a 39-yard return. Da'Rick Rogers had a 21-yard run that set up a 35-yard field goal by Lincoln with 8:53 left in the first quarter.

The Ducks struggled to find an answer for Poole, who had 111 yards rushing in the first quarter. He finished with 162 yards on 23 carries.

Oregon found some offense after a 42-yard field goal by Rob Beard with 2:56 left in the second quarter. Tennessee failed to convert a fourth down, and the Ducks answered with a 27-yard scoring strike from Darron Thomas to David Paulson that tied the game at 13 with a minute before halftime.

Thomas completed 17 of 32 for 202 yards and two touchdown passes. The Ducks picked up 447 yards of offense compared to the Vols' 333 yards, despite holding the ball three fewer minutes than Tennessee.

Game #3 • Sept. 18

PORTLAND STATE 0
#5 OREGON 69

Eugene, Oregon (58,086)
Autzen Stadium
63 degrees, showers

EUGENE, Ore. — LaMichael James was disappointed.

Even with a career-high 227 yards on 14 carries with two touchdowns in No. 5 Oregon's easy 69-0 defeat of Portland State, James thought his play lacked something. In fact, he dramatically called it ``the worst game I've ever played in my life."

Maybe it was because he wasn't challenged from the start, when he ran untouched for 66 yards into the end zone. James went on to help Oregon amass 528 yards on the ground, surpassing the school record 465 set at Washington in 2007.

It was James' first game with more than 200 yards, and he did it all before halftime. With a game comfortably in hand, the Ducks (3-0) were afforded the luxury of emptying the bench early in the final 30 minutes.

Darron Thomas completed nine of 18 passes for 140 yards and a career-best four scores in the victory, Oregon's 11th straight at Autzen Stadium.

With a 72-0 rout of New Mexico in the opener, and a 48-13 victory over Tennessee last weekend, Oregon has outscored its opponents 189-13 in nonconference play. It marked the first time the Ducks have had two shutouts in a season since 1964.

The Vikings (2-1) of the FCS Big Sky Conference got as close as the Oregon 13 in the fourth quarter but the Ducks stopped them on fourth-and-1.

The Vikings also got close enough in the first half to give Zach Brown a 52-yard field goal attempt, but it went wide left in the miserably damp conditions.

Oregon improved to 4-0 all-time against the Vikings. Portland State fell to 0-10 against the Pac-10 after a season-opening loss to Arizona State.

The Vikings had no answer for James, who had his 11th career game with at least 100 yards rushing.

Coupled with his 134 yards and one score last week at Tennessee, James has accumulated 361 yards on the ground In two appearances in the young season.

Quarterback Darron Thomas also continued his development after taking over as Oregon's starter this season. Thomas and fifth-year senior Nate Costa competed for the job in fall camp that was eventually won by the Houston sophomore.

Conner Kavanaugh completed 8 of 21 passes for 18 yards in the Vikings' new pistol offense, as Portland State had just 140 yards total offense compared to Oregon's 668.

Game #4 • Sept. 25

#5 OREGON	42
ARIZONA STATE	31

Tempe, Ariz. (60,326)
Sun Devil Stadium
100 degrees, clear skies

TEMPE, Ariz. — The air let out of its pounding running game, No. 5 Oregon switched gears to a big-play passing offense.

Quarterback Darron Thomas threw for 260 yards and two scores, and Oregon forced seven turnovers to pull away in the second half for a 42-31 win over Arizona State in the Pac-10 opener for both schools.

``You see that the defense came out in the second quarter and played an awesome game, helped us out on offense,'' Thomas said. ``We never had doubts that we weren't going to put up points.''

Arizona State (2-2) held the nation's second-leading rushing team to 145 yards - 235 below its average - and used its up-tempo offense to build a 10-point lead late in a first half.

Oregon (4-0) rallied behind Thomas' arm, scoring two touchdowns in the final 2:21 of the first half and blew it open with two more scores in the third quarter.

Thomas had a four-touchdown first half against Portland State last week and added more big plays against Arizona State. He threw for 260 yards and TD passes to Josh Huff and Jeff Maehl while the running game stalled through the first three quarters.

The ball-hawking defense simply did what it always does.

The national leader in total and scoring defense, Oregon gave up plenty of yards: 597, Arizona's most since 2000.

The Ducks just made the plays when they had to, recovering three fumbles and intercepting Steven Threet four times, including three in the fourth quarter as Arizona State kept trying to come back.

``You can't win if you turn the ball over seven times, plain and simple,'' said Threet, who threw for 387 yards and three touchdowns. ``There's no other way to put it.''

Oregon passed one road test by knocking off Tennessee and faced what figured to be a tougher one against an improved Arizona State team. On top of that, it was unusually hot, even for the desert: 100 degrees at kickoff.

Arizona State went right at Oregon from the start, missing a field goal on its first possession and scoring on the second when Deantre Lewis flashed a burst of speed at the Ducks on the way to a 53-yard touchdown.

Then suddenly the lead was gone.

LaMichael James scored 64 seconds later, taking the left corner and taking off, leaving a trail of Arizona State defenders in his wake for a 40-yard touchdown. Three plays later, Threet threw off his back foot as he was being hit and was intercepted by John Boyett, who returned it 39 yards for a touchdown and a 14-7 Ducks' lead.

Arizona State refused to back down just yet.

Threet hit Mike Willie on an on-the-run, on-the-money 10-yard touchdown, before Thomas Weber hit a 34-yard field goal. Threet followed with a double-teaming-splitting 28-yard touchdown pass to Kerry Taylor to put Arizona State up 24-14, one play after Omar Bolden intercepted Thomas.

Still not good enough; Oregon absorbed the blows and got back to doing what it does best, scoring quickly.

The Ducks moved 80 yards in 83 seconds their next drive for Maehl's diving 12-yard touchdown catch. The next drive was even quicker: three plays, 80 yards, 30 seconds, set up by a 61-yard reception by David Paulson and capped by Thomas' TD run.

Oregon, after all those big plays and momentum swings, led 28-24 at the half.

The Ducks kept on the gas in the third quarter, scoring on a pump-faking 54-yard pass from Thomas to Huff and Boseko Lokombo's 32-yard fumble return on a lateral the Sun Devils thought was an incomplete pass.

Trailing 42-24, Threet tried to rally the Sun Devils, hitting Willie on a 15-yard touchdown pass. It turned out to be Arizona State's last chance; Lewis lost a fumble on the next drive and Threet had three passes intercepted in Oregon's side of the field in the fourth quarter.

#9 STANFORD	31
#4 OREGON	52

Eugene, Ore. (59,818)
Autzen Stadium
70 degrees, mostly sunny

EUGENE, Ore. — Little would anyone dream that a game so early in the season would play such a pivotal role in the season's outcome.

Swarmed by fans after he led No. 4 Oregon to victory over No. 9 Stanford, quarterback Darron Thomas surveyed the chaotic scene and quietly smiled.

``We did a good job," he said simply when a reveler congratulated him.

Thomas contributed in a big way by throwing for 238 yards and three touchdowns, and running for 117 yards and another score in Oregon's come-from-behind 52-31 win.

His calm in the storm of the postgame celebration was typical of the sophomore, who never appeared to get rattled.

The Ducks (5-0, 2-0 Pac-10) fell behind 21-3 in the first quarter of the frenzied game, but forced two crucial turnovers and held the Cardinal scoreless in the second half. LaMichael James ran for a career-high 257 yards and three touchdowns with the national spotlight clearly focused on the victors.

It was Oregon's 13th straight win at Autzen Stadium and 10th consecutive Pac-10 victory.

The Cardinal (4-1, 1-1) had not won a game while ranked in the top 10 since 1970.

Saturday's game was the first time Oregon and Stanford have faced each other as ranked teams. The Cardinal have not started a season 5-0 since 1951, when they won the Pacific Coast Conference and a Rose Bowl berth.

The game lived up to the hype as a battle of offenses. Oregon, averaging 560 yards of total offense going into the game, had 626 yards. The Cardinal finished witrh 518.

Thomas completed 20-of-29 passes, and while he was intercepted twice, Oregon coach Chip Kelly said the key was that Thomas wasn't unnerved by it all.

Stanford's Andrew Luck was 29 of 46 for 241 yards and two scores. He was also intercepted twice.

Oregon tied it at 31 with 8:20 to go in the third quarter on Thomas' 6-yard keeper and the momentum shifted the Ducks' way.

Midway through the quarter, Luck found receiver Chris Owusu for a 6-yard completion at midfield, but he fumbled after a hard hit by Oregon's Javes Lewis. Eddie Pleasant scooped up the ball and returned it to the 3-yard line, and James ran it in from there for Oregon's first lead of the game.

On Stanford's first play of the next series, Luck was intercepted by Cliff Harris and Oregon cruised from there.

Stanford went up 14-3 in the first quarter after Oregon kickoff returner Cliff Harris fumbled. That led to Luck's 10-yard scoring run. After another Oregon turnover, this time an interception, Stephan Taylor ran 44 yards for a score with 1:08 left in the quarter.

Oregon got back in the game with Thomas' 29-yard scoring pass to Jeff Maehl. The Ducks followed with an onside kick that was recovered by kicker Rob Beard, and James went on to score on a 5-yard run to close the deficit to 21-17.

Thomas passed to John Huff for a 41-yard score to narrow it again for Oregon before Nate Whitaker's 46-yard field goal as time ran out in the first half gave Stanford a 31-24 lead.

James ran for a career-best 76-yard touchdown in the final minutes of the fourth quarter.

Game #6 • Oct. 9

#3 OREGON 43
WASHINGTON STATE 23

Pullman, Wash. (24,768)
Martin Stadium
64 degrees, overcast

PULLMAN, Wash. — Every time LaMichael James took the ball, he wasn't thinking of the end zone he so often visits.

He was thinking of his Oregon teammate Kenjon Barner and the sight of Barner being taken off the field in an ambulance.

``Every play I did, Kenjon was in my mind," James said.

James scored three touchdowns, including an 84-yard scoring reception, and No. 3 Oregon shook Washington State in the second half for a 43-23 win on Saturday.

But the win wasn't an easy one. And whether it was the lingering image of Barner being taken to the hospital following a scary collision or the improvement of Washington State, the Ducks made just enough plays to hold off the pesky Cougars.

Oregon's offense failed to run with the crisp perfection that blitzed Stanford a week ago and flew the Ducks past Boise State in the AP Top 25.

Oregon (6-0, 3-0) was a 36-point favorite, yet led just 36-23 late in the third quarter.

Part of that could have been the scary sight of Barner laying motionless on the field in the first quarter.

Barner was flattened on a kickoff return by Washington State's Anthony Carpenter, fumbling as he crumpled to the turf.

Barner wasn't the only injury for the Ducks to deal with. Quarterback Darron Thomas left the game in the second quarter with an ailing shoulder, but Nate Costa made sure Oregon didn't skip a beat.

Costa led a trio of scoring drives including his own 18-yard TD run early in the second half to give Oregon a 36-17 lead. Costa ran for 84 yards and threw for another 151 on 13 of 15 passing. Jeff Maehl caught 10 passes for 119 yards, including a screen pass he took 34 yards for a touchdown with 11:45 left that sealed the victory.

Cliff Harris added a 67-yard punt return touchdown in the first half, his third punt return score of the season.

James finished for 136 yards on 25 carries, more than half those yards coming on two runs against a Washington State defense giving up more than 43 points per game.

WSU's Jeff Tuel threw for 245 yards and a touchdown and James Montgomery added a 26-yard TD run in the first half for Washington State (1-5, 0-3). Jared Karstetter had 10 catches for 106 yards, and a year after getting held to just 151 yards in a 52-6 loss to Oregon, the Cougars rolled up 336 on Saturday.

And they had a chance in the second half to make the Ducks very uncomfortable.

Down 36-17, Washington State scored on Daniel Blackledge's leaping 11-yard grab. It was just the second second-half touchdown allowed by Oregon this season.

Then the Cougars got the break they needed when James fumbled after a 55-yard run.

Tuel quickly drove the Cougars down to the Oregon 12, thanks largely to a 35-yard fade pass to Karstetter. On first-and-10, Tuel threw into triple coverage and was intercepted by Oregon's Casey Matthews at the 2.

Game #7 • Oct. 21

UCLA	13
#1 OREGON	60

Eugene, Ore. (59,372)
Autzen Stadium
62 degrees, partly cloudy

EUGENE, Ore. — None of the top-ranked Oregon Ducks were congratulating themselves after dismantling UCLA, so Bruins coach Rick Neuheisel did it for them.

``That was impressive," Neuheisel said. ``I'll leave it at that. That was impressive."

Oregon, celebrating it's first outing ever at No. 1, beat the Bruins 60-13 on a Thursday night in a game the Ducks controlled from the outset.

Darron Thomas threw for a career-high 308 yards and three touchdowns and Oregon stopped a run of losses for top-ranked teams. Alabama lost to South Carolina two weekends ago and Ohio State lost at Wisconsin last week.

LaMichael James, the nation's top rusher, finished with 123 yards and two TDs on the ground for Oregon (7-0, 4-0) after spending part of the first quarter on hobbled on the. But that just made way for reserve Remene Alston to run for three scores.

The Bruins (3-4, 1-3) were without quarterback Kevin Prince, who did not suit up against the Ducks because of a knee injury. He was replaced by sophomore Richard Brehaut, who completed 16 of 23 passes for 159 yards.

James was slowed late in the first quarter but before long, the dynamic back was high-stepping on the sidelines and returned.

James has accumulated 971 yards rushing in six games, an average of 161.8. It was the sophomore's 14th career game with at least 100 yards.

James ran 8 yards for the opening touchdown. While he rested on the sideline after going down, Alston added a 1-yard scoring plunge and Nate Costa ran in the 2-point conversion to make it 15-0.

After Kai Forbath made a 25-yard field goal for the Bruins, Thomas hit Josh Huff for a 22-yard touchdown pass and tight end David Paulson for a 6-yard score to make it 29-3.

A 29-yard field goal from Rob Beard with 42 seconds remaining before the intermission increased Oregon's lead to 32-3 at the break.

Thomas added a 3-yard TD pass to Jeff Maehl in the second half, and James scored on a 6-yard run. Thomas completed 22 of 31 passes, and also ran for 48 yards.

Alston had a pair of 2-yard touchdown runs in the fourth period, including one set up by a Brehaut fumble.

Brehaut, who made his first career start earlier this season in UCLA's 42-28 victory over Washington State, passed for 159 yards and ran for a 6-yard score with 1:53 left in the game.

The Bruins also were without receiver Josh Smith and fullback Morrell Presley, who were suspended for the game for violating team rules.

Oregon fans turned out to celebrate the ranking, many wearing yellow for the benefit of the national television audience.

While the Ducks were No. 1 in the AP media poll, they were ranked No. 2 behind Oklahoma on Sunday in the first BCS rankings of the season.

Game #8 • Oct. 30

#1 OREGON 53
#24 USC 32

Los Angeles, Calif. (88,726)
LA Memorial Coliseum
64 degrees, sunny

LOS ANGELES — Southern California really thought it had figured out how to stop Oregon's high-octane offense when the Trojans took a third-quarter lead on the nation's top-ranked team.

Turns out the Ducks were only pausing on the way to another convincing win.

LaMichael James rushed for 239 yards and three touchdowns, Darron Thomas threw three of his four scoring passes to Jeff Maehl and No. 1 Oregon roared back from a second-half deficit with a 53-32 victory over the 24th-ranked Trojans.

Thomas passed for 288 yards and Maehl had eight catches for a career-high 145 yards for the fleet-footed Ducks (8-0, 4-0 Pac-10), who racked up 599 total yards in yet another barn-burning offensive performance. Oregon still trailed in the third quarter for just the second time all season after USC scored two touchdowns in 2 1/2 minutes to take a 32-29 lead.

``We have a tendency to wear people down," Oregon coach Chip Kelly said. ``I'm not into statements. I'm just into winning games."

Indeed, the nation's rushing leader James led the Ducks to 24 consecutive points to close their first win at the Coliseum since 2000.

Matt Barkley passed for 263 yards and Marc Tyler rushed for two scores for the Trojans (5-3, 2-3), who used trickery and big defensive plays to stay competitive until the third quarter.

Despite a vibrant homecoming crowd cheering on its underdog Trojans, USC lost at the Coliseum for the fourth time in seven games. Ronald Johnson caught a TD pass while making a handful of big special-teams plays for the Trojans, and freshman Robert Woods had seven receptions in what's likely to be the biggest game of USC's bowl-less season under NCAA sanctions.

Lavasier Tuinei had seven catches for 78 yards and a score for the Ducks, who are likely to keep the first No. 1 ranking in school history for a third straight week and hold on to second place in the BCS standings behind Auburn.

After a slow start, James rolled to his third 200-yard game of the season. Maehl had a juggling, one-handed TD catch during his career day, and Thomas shook off a few early mistakes to go 19 for 32 with three TD throws of at least 30 yards.

USC thought it still had a shot early in the third quarter. Casey intercepted a tipped pass on Oregon's opening drive of the second half, and the Trojans swiftly drove for Johnson's short TD catch just 1:17 into the third quarter.

Johnson then made a 51-yard punt return, and two Oregon penalties set up Barkley's 1-yard TD dive and a 2-point conversion pass for a 32-29 lead.

But the Ducks came back with a 30-yard TD throw to Maehl and a scoring run by James to cap an 82-yard drive, all before the third quarter ended. Oregon's defense shut out the Trojans in the final 25 minutes as the Ducks extended their second-half scoring advantage for the season to 180-38.

Oregon unleashed its quick-strike offense immediately after USC's opening field goal, with a 76-yard drive in 2:21 for Maehl's 15-yard TD catch and a 2-point conversion.

USC led 17-15 and had the ball in Oregon territory midway through the second quarter, but Barkley fumbled a shotgun snap after getting distracted by his sideline. On the next play, Maehl made a 45-yard TD catch, artfully tipping the ball before catching it with one hand.

Oregon then capitalized on a 41-yard punt return by Cliff Harris, with Thomas finding Tuinei alone down the middle for a 33-yard score 1:10 before halftime for a 29-17 lead.

Game #9 • Nov. 6

WASHINGTON 16
#1 OREGON 53

Eugene, Ore. (60,017)
Autzen Stadium
59 degrees, mostly cloudy

EUGENE, Ore. — Running back LaMichael James felt it, and so did the rest of the top-ranked Ducks.

There was something inexplicably amiss at the start of Oregon's 53-16 victory over northwest rival Washington on Saturday. Something was completely out of character for the nation's most prolific offense.

The Ducks (9-0, 6-0 Pac-10) were held scoreless in the first quarter for the first time this season. Their first points came on a 29-yard field goal early in the second quarter.

Of course they went on to thoroughly recover, outscoring Washington 35-10 in the second half. James ran for 121 yards and three touchdowns, while Darron Thomas threw for a score and ran for two more.

Redshirt freshman Keith Price made his first career start for Washington (3-6, 2-4) in place of Jake Locker, who watched from the sidelines with a broken rib. Price held his own, completing 14 of 28 passes for 127 yards and a touchdown.

He had only completed five of nine attempts going into the game. He threw a touchdown pass on his only play from scrimmage in a 32-31 victory on the road against USC on Oct. 2.

There were questions about how Price would handle the noisy Autzen Stadium crowd, which on Saturday was announced at 60,017 - the largest in the stadium's history.

After Oregon opened the scoring with Rob Beard's field goal, Erik Folk's 52-yard attempt for Washington went wide left. But Folk made another 52-yarder later in the quarter to tie the game at 3.

James finally got a touchdown for the Ducks midway through the second quarter with a 1-yard run. Beard ran in the 2-point conversion.

Before halftime Thomas ran 34 yards for a score to make it 18-3. Washington appeared to narrow it with less than a minute left with Price's 16-yard scoring pass to Devin Aguilar, but it was called back by a penalty, and the Huskies settled for a Folk's 27-yard field goal to make it 18-6 at the break.

Oregon did overcome it in the second half.

After Price threw a 17-yard scoring pass to D'Andre Goodwin to make it 18-13 at the start of the second half, the Ducks answered with Thomas' 6-yard scoring pass to Jeff Maehl.

Oregon attempted a 26-field goal but Nate Costa bobbled the hold and scrambled to the sideline. Costa, Thomas' backup at quarterback, was knocked out of bounds near Washington's bench and suffered a season-ending knee injury.

James ran 13 yards for a touchdown before Thomas scored on a 7-yard dash to close out the third quarter. James added a 1-yard scoring run early in the fourth.

James, a sophomore and the nation's rushing leader, has run for 30 TDs at Oregon and has 16 games with at least 100 yards.

Kenjon Barner, who had missed the past two games after sustaining a concussion against Washington State, ran 30 yards for a touchdown with 4:34 left.

Oregon, as usual, wore the Huskies out.

Thomas completed 24 of 33 passes for 243 yards. He ran for 89 yards.

Game #10 • Nov. 13

#1 OREGON 15
CALIFORNIA 13

Berkeley, Calif. (65,963)
Memorial Stadium
68 degrees, clear

BERKELEY, Calif. — Oregon's sturdy defense loved the chance to demonstrate that the Ducks' offense isn't the only star of this show.

Jeff Maehl caught a 29-yard pass for the Ducks' only offensive touchdown, and No. 1 Oregon caught a huge break on an illegal motion penalty against California's kicker during a 15-13 victory on Saturday night, keeping the Ducks on course for the BCS title game.

Cliff Harris returned a punt 64 yards for the only touchdown in the first half for the Ducks (10-0, 7-0 Pac-10), who undeniably wobbled on the road to a shot at the national championship. Oregon's offense managed a season-low 317 yards and went scoreless in two quarters -- yet the defense largely shut down Cal after its opening drive.

Early in the fourth quarter, Cal kicker Giorgio Tavecchio erased his own 24-yard field goal, which would have put the Golden Bears ahead by one, by taking a stutter step forward before the snap. The junior then missed a 29-yard try on the next play.

Oregon kicker Rob Beard also missed two field goals after starting the season connecting on each of his first eight field goal tries.

Darron Thomas passed for 155 yards and led a final drive that chewed up the last 9 1/2 minutes. It was a strange sight to see the high-speed Ducks down shift into super-slow motion, but it worked to perfection: Kenjon Barner and LaMichael James took turns with the ball while Thomas milked the play clock on an 18-play, 65-yard drive that ended on the Bears' 15-yard line at the game's conclusion.

James rushed for a season-low 91 yards, but Oregon's defense shut out Cal's offense for the final 55 minutes.

Cal defensive tackle Derrick Hill forced a fumble and recovered it in the end zone for the Bears (5-5, 3-4), who lost at home for the first time all season -- but only after putting a mighty scare into their first top-ranked opponent in five years.

Shane Vereen rushed for 105 yards and scored a touchdown on Cal's opening drive. Brock Mansion went 10 for 27 for 69 yards in his second career start.

Oregon's offensive struggles certainly weren't for a lack of nerve. The Ducks went for it twice on fourth down on their opening drive, but turned over the ball at midfield. After an incomplete pass, Cal handed the ball five straight times to Vereen, who barreled in from 1 yard out just 4 1/2 minutes into the first quarter.

The Ducks didn't score until the second quarter, when Harris broke down the Oregon sideline for his fourth TD punt return of the season.

Defensive end Dion Jordan took the 2-point conversion in for a score on a trick play, putting the Ducks up 8-7.

Vereen fumbled at the Cal 29 on the Bears' first drive of the second half, and Thomas hit Maehl in stride for a score on the next play, finally showing off the quick-strike offense that has captivated college football.

#20 ARIZONA 29
#1 OREGON 48

Eugene, Ore. (59,990)
Autzen Stadium
48 degrees, light rain

EUGENE, Ore. — Oregon was anything but sedentary on the day after Thanksgiving with a 48-29 victory over the 20th-ranked Wildcats. The top-ranked Ducks earned at least a share of their second-straight Pac-10 title and stayed on course for a trip to the BCS national championship game.

Darron Thomas passed for 148 yards and three scores and ran for another, while running back LaMichael James ran for 126 yards and two strikes for the Ducks (11-0, 8-0), who trailed at halftime for only the second time this year,19-14.

The Ducks have only won 11 games in a season once before, when Joey Harrington led them to the Fiesta Bowl in 2001.

It was the third straight loss for Arizona (7-4, 4-4), which ultimately couldn't keep up with the Ducks' speedy spread-option.

Nick Foles passed for a career-high 448 yards and three touchdowns, including an 85-yard score to Juron Criner. It just wasn't enough.

Thomas completed 14 of 24 passes for 148 yards and an interception. Oregon finished with 537 yards total offense. Arizona put up 506.

Oregon was playing catch-up the entire first half but the Ducks bounced back early in the second half with Josh Huff's 85-yard scoring run, the longest play from scrimmage for the Ducks this season. While the conversion failed, Oregon had a 20-19 lead.

Arizona hurt itself on Oregon's next series, when they were called offside on Rob Beard's missed 42-yard field goal attempt. That gave the Ducks a first down and Thomas followed with a 20-yard touchdown run to make it 27-19.

The Wildcats cut the lead on Alex Zendejas' 41-yard field goal, but James ran for a pair of scores, one for 13 yards and another from 1 yard out, to make it 48-22.

James has tallied 19 rushing touchdowns this season, surpassing LeGarrette Blount's school record 17 set in 2008.

He quickly showed he was fine by busting for a 38-yard run on Oregon's first series. With the run, the sophomore became just the second Ducks player in history to run for 3,000 career yards.

The Wildcats struck first, capitalizing on Hall's interception of Thomas, which led to Foles' 8-yard touchdown pass to Criner.

Oregon answered quickly with Thomas' 38-yard scoring pass to David Paulson, a drive that took just 1:35. But the Autzen Stadium crowd was stunned just seconds later when Foles hit Criner with an 85-yard touchdown reception.

Thomas tied it again with a 6-yard pass to Jeff Maehl in the back of the end zone.

Oregon botched a punt snap, sailing it out of the end zone for an Arizona safety, to give the visitors a 16-14 edge. The Wildcats added a 29-yard field goal to take the lead into halftime.

Game #12 • Dec. 4

#1 OREGON 37
OREGON STATE 20

Corvallis, Ore. (46,469)
Reser Stadium
46 degrees, sunny

CORVALLIS, Ore. — Along with all that flash and dash, Oregon will bring a hefty dose of good old-fashioned grit to the BCS national title game.

Heisman Trophy contender LaMichael James, Kenjon Barner and the fast-paced Ducks negotiated the last speed bump on the way to Glendale, Ariz., grinding out a 37-20 victory against Oregon State in their third-straight Civil War win.

Yet this one was the most important of the Ducks' 58 all-time triumphs against their intrastate rivals.

James ran for 134 yards and two touchdowns while Barner added 133 yards on the ground and scored twice for the Ducks (12-0, 9-0 Pac-10), who used some stiff defense in the red zone and four interceptions to fend off their feisty rivals.

Not until the fourth quarter did Oregon finally shake free.

Barner's 23-yard touchdown run with 12:16 made it 30-13 and James popped through the middle for a 10-yard score with 4:27 left to seal it.

Jacquizz Rodgers had 87 yards rushing for the Beavers (5-7, 4-5) and scored a touchdown, but they were forced to settle for short field goals twice in the third quarter - and that just won't do against the most prolific offense in the country.

When the game was over, James and his teammates bounded over to a corner of Reser Stadium to celebrate with their band, their famous Duck mascot, their fans and their first appearance in the national championship game in school history.

The stakes for the 114th Civil War were higher than for any of the previous meetings, with the Ducks assured of a spot in the national title game with a victory. The Beavers? They were simply looking to get to .500 and avoid sitting out the bowl season for the first time since 2005.

Oregon State didn't play like a three-touchdown underdog and Oregon never did unleash a wave of big plays, like those that have consumed so many other teams.

The Ducks' best play of the third quarter came from their special teams as Michael Clay, the up-back on the punt team, burst through the middle of the line and rumbled 64 yards on a fourth down deep in Oregon territory.

That set up a 19-yard touchdown pass off a screen to D.J. Davis that made it 23-7, and provided Oregon the momentum to finish the task.

The Beavers inched closer with two short field goals by Justin Kahut (26 and 22 yards) and 10 seconds into the fourth quarter Oregon's lead was 23-13. But the Ducks were more than willing to trade field goals for touchdowns.

After three early turnovers (two by Oregon), the rivals traded touchdown drives that would typify the way each wanted to play.

Oregon State took 15 plays and a season-high 7:36 off the clock to go 62 yards for a 6-yard touchdown pass to Rodgers.

Oregon responded quickly, needing only 2:43 to go 60 yards, capped by a 3-yard TD pass from Thomas to Barner. The Ducks botched the extra point, a low snap leading to a block. Kicker Rob Beard made a 36-yard field goal in the second quarter and missed a 25-yarder on the final play of the first half.

In between, James capped a 74-yard drive that took 1:55 and included no completed passes with an 8-yard touchdown run to make it 16-7 at the half.

COACHES

Chip Kelly

two seasons | 22-3 (.880) | 17-1 Pac-10 (.944)
University of New Hampshire, 1990

After a Pacific-10 Conference Championship as a first-year head coach and a trip to the Rose Bowl in 2009, what could Oregon football fans expect for an encore?

An unbeaten regular season, a second consecutive league title, a date in the BCS National Championship and near-unanimous national coach-of-the-year honors isn't a bad way to start. Chip Kelly has taken a program that had been accustomed to making a gradual ascent up the ladder toward conference supremacy and has elevated it into one that appears ready for hyperspace.

The Ducks' head man became the first coach in Pac-10 history to win an outright conference title in his first season and led the Ducks to their first Rose Bowl Game appearance since 1995 a year ago. The two-time Pac-10 Coach of the Year also became the league's first national coach-of-the-year recipient in seven seasons in 2010.

After losing the 2009 season opener, Kelly has inspired teams to wins in 22 of 23 regular season outings as well as a pair of BCS bowl berths. Included in that span is a 17-1 ledger in Pac-10 play.

Named Oregon's 30th head football coach in March 2009, Kelly has adopted a philosophy that was successful in eight seasons on the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision front (formerly Division I-AA) and has demonstrated few signs of slowing down at the top level of collegiate competition.

He has quickly acquired the tag as one of the top offensive minds in the game today, with his teams surpassing the school's single-season records in rushing, scoring and total offense three of his four years at Oregon.

In his first season as a head coach at any level, Kelly proved that his explosive offense has yet to be figured out by opposing defensive co-ordinators. The Ducks ranked No. 8 in the nation in scoring, and sixth nationally in rushing.

This year Oregon has improved those numbers, leading the country in scoring (49.3 ppg) while completing the regular season second nationally in total offense (537.5 avg.) and fourth in rushing offense (303.8 avg.).

The UO defense also made its mark in 2010, ranking sixth nationally in pass efficiency defense, 14th in scoring defense (18.4), 16th in rushing defense (117.6) and 25 in total defense (331.6). In Pac-10 play, the Ducks have ranked among the top two in the league in rushing defense and scoring defense each of the past two years, as well as were conference leaders in pass efficiency defense this year.

Fueling Oregon's success under Kelly has been a team approach that resulted in only one player earning first-team all-conference attention in 2009.

The former New Hampshire offensive coordinator arrived at Oregon in 2007 and promptly solidified his position in UO lore by producing the highest scoring team and most yards of total offense in school history.

Under his guidance in '08, the Ducks were the Pac-10's best at running the ball (280.1 yards per game) for the third year in a row, scoring (41.9 points per game), and moving the football downfield (484.9 ypg). UO ranked second nationally in rushing and was seventh in the country in the other two offensive benchmarks. Three of the conference's top 10 rushers wore green and yellow, including a tandem of 1,000-yard runners in Jeremiah Johnson and LeGarrette Blount.

That squad eclipsed 300 rushing yards in eight of 13 games, including one of 400-plus, while Kelly's offenses surpassed 50 points 10 times during his first two years. Included was an attack that produced an Oregon single-game record 694 yards of total offense in the 2008 Civil War victory over Oregon State. UO's 65 points that day against the Beavers were the most ever scored by the Ducks, or allowed by OSU, in a Pac-10 game.

Also during his second year in Eugene, the Ducks established school standards for touchdowns (71) and rushing touchdowns (47) on their way to a No. 9 (USA Today) national ranking. Oregon capped its top-10 run with a 42-31 win over No. 13 Oklahoma State in the Holiday Bowl - UO's second bowl victory in as many years with Kelly at the offensive controls.

Kelly was one of five coaches to visit troops overseas in May as part of the USO's Coaches Tour 2010 that was co-sponsored by Armed Forces Entertainment.

But since taking control of the reins prior to start of the 2009 season, the Ducks have averaged 42.4 points a game, surpassing 40 points a game 17 times in 25 appearances, and 472.2 yards of total offense.

His offense's have been instrumental in highlighting the talents of a pair of Heisman Trophy candidates in quarterback Dennis Dixon in 2007 and running back LaMichael James in 2010.

Among the most amazing aspects of his Oregon success has been the offensive numbers have been produced by a different cast of headliners. In 2007, it was Dixon, running back Jonathan Stewart, wide receiver Jaison Williams and tight end Ed Dickson. In '08, dual running threats complimented the talents of quarterback Jeremiah Masoli and four receivers who each caught more than 35 passes for 400 yards. Last year, it was Masoli and redshirt freshman LaMichael James who provided the highlights on offense.

This year the return of James has been aided by running mate Kenjon Barner, wide receiver Jeff Maehl, as well as a first-year starting quarterback in Darron Thomas.

Oregon was forced to start four different quarterbacks over the final four games due to injury in 2007. Kelly tutored the final signal caller of that bunch, redshirt freshman Justin Roper, who turned in a near flawless performance in guiding the Ducks to a 56-21 Sun Bowl win over South Florida.

Kelly (11-25-63) served as New Hampshire's' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach from 1999 through 2006, where his offenses averaged better than 400 yards of total offense in seven of his eight seasons and more than 30 points a game in his final four years. As a result, three Wildcat players received first-team All-America acclaim each of his last two seasons in the Granite State.

He was named the College Assistant Coach of the Year by the Gridiron Club of Greater Boston following the 2005 season in addition to being selected as "one of college football's hottest coaches" by American Football Monthly.

The Manchester, N.H., native and 13-year New Hampshire coaching veteran was elevated to offensive coordinator following two years as the Wildcats' offensive line coach (1997-98) and three seasons coaching the school's running backs (1994-96).

The school's quarterback, Ricky Santos, was the recipient of the Walter Payton Award (awarded annually to the best offensive player in Division I-AA) in 2006 after finishing second in the balloting in 2005.

He finished his junior year fourth in the country in passing (3,125 yards) and threw for 29 touchdowns.

New Hampshire finished that year with a 9-4 record and ranked sixth in the country after advancing to the quarterfinals of the NCAA I-AA playoffs, losing to eventual national runner-up Massachusetts, 24-17. Kelly guided his contingent to second in the country (NCAA I-AA) in scoring offense (35.3 avg.) and seventh in total offense (400.6 avg.).

New Hampshire finished that year with a 9-4 record and ranked sixth in the country after advancing to the quarterfinals of the NCAA I-AA playoffs, losing to eventual national runner-up Massachusetts, 24-17. Kelly guided his contingent to second in the country (NCAA I-AA) in scoring offense (35.3 avg.) and seventh in total offense (400.6 avg.).

Kelly's best offensive output was in 2005 when the Wildcats finished second nationally in total offense (493.5 avg.), third in scoring (41.7 avg.) and fifth in passing (300.1 avg.), while completing the season with an 11-2 record. In 2004, the school broke 29 offensive school records, compiling 5,446 yards of total offense and scoring 40 or more points in seven games.

While his acclaim may have resulted from his offensive prowess, he has accumulated three seasons of experience coaching on the defensive side of the football. Included was a one-year stint as defensive coordinator at Johns Hopkins (1993) between tenures at his alma mater.

The 1990 New Hampshire graduate (B.S. degree in physical education) broke into the coaching ranks in 1990 at Columbia University, where he served as freshman secondary and special teams coach. He assumed responsibility for the Lions' varsity outside linebackers and strong safeties the following year before returning to New Hampshire as running backs coach in 1992.

Nick Aliotti

defensive coordinator
21 seasons at Oregon
UC Davis, 1976

Now in his third stint with the Ducks, Nick Aliotti is coming off back-to-back seasons that many of the experts rate among his best.

Last season may not have generated the euphoria of the 1994 "Gang Green" defense that led Oregon to its previous Rose Bowl appearance but it was responsible for providing the spark early in the year before the offense gained momentum. Yet the only thing absent from 2010 may have been a catchy slogan.

Never has an Oregon defense allowed fewer points (221) during a season that included a minimum of 12 games and you would have to go back to 1980 to uncover a defensive scoring average lower than this year's 18.4 points per game, and only once in the last 15 seasons have the Ducks allowed fewer than this year's 3,979 total yards in 12 games or more.

Coordinating a scheme which ranked sixth in the country in pass efficiency defense while yielding only 13 touchdown passes compared with 20 interceptions in 2010, the Ducks' defenders ranked eighth nationally in tackles for loss (7.5 avg.) and 14th in scoring defense (18.4 avg.). They also stand second in the country in turnovers gained (35).

For his efforts Aliotti was nominated for the Broyles Award, given to the nation's top collegiate assistant coach.

His 2009 defense that among the top two teams in the conference in 10 major defensive categories in Pac-10 play, in addition to being ranked 14th in the country in sacks per game (2.77) and 25th passing efficiency defense (112.30). UO was the Pac-10's best team in rushing defense (118.6 avg.), passing defense (197.4 avg.) and total defense (316.0) in league games, while allowing the fewest opponent touchdowns (23). The Ducks also allowed an average of only 11.6 points per game in their first five league appearances.

Continuing to mentor the Oregon defense with his familiar aggressive and innovative flair, the 35-year coaching veteran is one of the school's most popular assistants in recent memory. Returning to the position prior to the 1999 season where he enjoyed his greatest success, the energetic Aliotti has completed 21 overall campaigns with the Ducks in addition to his one season heading the defense at UCLA and three years in the NFL.

In addition to continuing to coordinate the program's defensive efforts, Aliotti added the responsibility of overseeing the program's strong side linebackers in 2009.

While he'll always be credited as a major contributor to the '94 conference championship campaign, his recent coaching efforts have been among his best despite an era that emphasizes offensive productivity.

Oregon produced its best stand against the run in seven years this season with numbers that ranked tops in the Pac-10 (117.6 avg.) while also pacing the league in fewest third and fourth-down conversions.

In 2007, Oregon led the nation in tackles for loss (9.38 avg.) in addition to ranking third in red zone defense and tied for 15th in sacks (3.0 avg.), while leading the Pac-10 in turnover margin (18th nationally). His defenders led the conference in pass defense (20th in the country) in 2006 for the third time in seven seasons, and in total defense (357.7 avg.) in 2005 for the first time since 1958. The Ducks also gave up their fewest yards of total defense (322.1 avg.) in 11 years in 2006, allowed their fewest points per game (23.2 avg.) in four years in 2005 and ranked 10th in the country in turnover margin, thanks in part to 23 interceptions (Oregon's best since 1968) -- the second-most in the country in 2005.

Employing a philosophy of focusing on opponents' running game, he helped Oregon rank 16th nationally against the run (107.1 avg.) in 2003. During the Ducks' Fiesta Bowl season of 2001, Oregon limited teams to 115.3 avg. against the run -- its best since its 1994 Rose Bowl year -- while ranking second in the league. For his efforts that season, Aliotti was rewarded by being an AFLAC National Assistant Coach of the Year recipient.

Under his guidance, Oregon's defense has held at least five of its opponents at 100 yards or less per game rushing in seven of the last 11 years, including six foes below the century mark in 2008. However, few performances may have been more impressive than limiting No. 3 Michigan to a paltry -3 rushing yards in the 31-27 upset of the Wolverines in 2003. Another equally impressive performance included limiting the ground attack of Colorado to just 49 yards in the 2002 Fiesta Bowl triumph. In 2004, the Ducks' defense stood tall against Stanford, holding the Cardinal to -8 yards rushing in a 16-13 Oregon victory in Palo Alto, Calif.

The 56-year-old's additional career highlights include taking a unit ranked eighth in the Pac-10 in defense in the first year of his previous Oregon tenure in 1993 and molding it into one that ranked among the nation's top-20 defending the run (12th, 112.4 avg.), pass (14th) and in scoring defense (20th, 17.7 avg.). He also helped design defenses which finished among the top 20 nationally in one of four major defensive categories on 10 occasions.

During his 21 years on the Oregon staff, Aliotti has mentored 27 defensive players selected in the NFL draft, including 2005 first-round pick Haloti Ngata.

After his departure following the school's first outright Pac-10 title ever and its first Rose Bowl appearance in 37 years, the Northern California native served as a defensive assistant and special teams coach with the St. Louis Rams from 1995-97 before returning to the collegiate ranks in 1998.

As a player, Aliotti was a three-year letterman as a running back at UC Davis, earning freshman team MVP honors in 1972 and Far Western Conference accolades his senior season.

Aliotti (5/29/54) and his wife, Kathryn, are parents of one son, Michael, and one daughter, Nicole.

Jerry Azzinaro

defensive line
two seasons at Oregon
American International, 1981

It didn't take long for Oregon's newest assistant on the defensive side of the ball to quickly contribute to the fast-paced tempo that epitomizes the Ducks' style of play. In fact, it was the New York native's high energy style of coaching that often fueled the defensive line's pace that was supplemented by as many as nine players providing a rotation that resulted in fresh legs in the trenches at all times.

Jerry Azzinaro made an immediate impact in 2009 after molding a skeleton crew along the defensive front wall into a cohesive unit that accounted for better than 63 percent of the quarterback sacks generated by a contingent that led the Pac-10 (36) and tied for 14th in the country.

Faced with the unenviable task of replacing all but one player in the position group with starting experience, "Coach Az" molded an aggressive fortress along the defensive line that was tops in the Pac-10 against the run in league play (118.6 avg.) and displayed inspiring fortitude in supplying goal-line stands in road wins against UCLA and Washington.

Azzinaro's charges were also the best in the conference at rushing the passer in 2009. The inspirational mentor coaxed a phenomenal year out of junior end Kenny Rowe, who led the league with 11.5 sacks and took home defensive MVP honors from the Rose Bowl.

Hired in February 2009, shortly before Chip Kelly took over head coaching duties, the 29-year coaching veteran's career includes 10 seasons as a defensive coordinator and one year as a head coach. Most recently, he coached the defensive line at Marshall University in 2008 after serving in the same capacity at the University of New Hampshire in '07.

The fiery motivator brings with him the experience as defensive coordinator at Duke (2004-06), the University of Massachusetts (1994, '97) and American International College (1987-91) in Springfield, Mass., in addition to serving as head coach at NCAA Division III Western New England College (Springfield, Mass.) in 1986.

His coaching resume includes a stint as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Syracuse from 1999-2003, where his pupils included All-American and NFL All-Pro defensive end Dwight Freeney. As defensive line coach at Boston College (1995-96), Azzinaro (7/11/58) tutored four linemen who signed NFL contracts.

"I think of myself as being a great teacher and motivator," he said.

Azzinaro broke into the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at American International College in 1982 while simultaneously serving as head wrestling coach at Hopkins Academy (Hadley, Mass.). He assumed the role as linebackers and running backs coach at Westfield (Mass.) State College in '85 before taking over the reins at Western New England College the following year.

After returning to his alma mater for a five-year stint, he began his first tour at Massachusetts in 1992, serving as linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator for two seasons before being elevated to defensive coordinator in '94.

He also coached the defensive line at the University of Maine in 1998.

A former linebacker at American International College who led his team in tackles his senior year, Azzinaro received his undergraduate degree in psychology in 1981 and his master's in educational psychology from there in 1985. Included among his accomplishments was achieving a brown belt in combat judo as well as being crowned a New England Golden Gloves heavyweight novice champion.

He and his wife, Alison Rourke, have a great dane, Zeus.

Gary Campbell

running backs
28 seasons at Oregon
UCLA, 1973

No Oregon coach, and only four collegiate mentors in the country, has logged a longer continuous tenure than that of Gary Campbell, who is concluding his 28th season working with the Ducks' running backs. But it is his quality of production that overshadows his longevity, in addition to his true passion for the players he mentors on and off the field.

In the pass-happy Pacific-10 Conference, he has not only maintained the alternative prominent in the program's attack, he has enhanced it. He has prided himself in the expansion of his pupils' talents beyond that of just running with the football.

After not having led the conference in rushing since 1955, Oregon has now done so each of the past five seasons, setting school single-season records twice in the last three years. The Ducks ranked second in the country in rushing with 3,641 yards in 2008 (280.1 avg.) before eclipsing the 300-yard average (303.8 avg.) for the first time ever this year. That mark is fourth in the country after ranking sixth in 2009 and 2007.

In the spring of 2010, Campbell, who has produced five 1,000-yard rushers over a four-year span, was named as one of the top 10 recruiters in the Pac-10 by Rivals.com.

Among the school's 14 1,000-yard single-season rushers, Campbell has coached 12 of them, including LaMichael James, who became the Oregon's first freshman ever to eclipse the 1,000-yard plateau in 2009, and Jonathan Stewart, who set the school's single-season mark with 1,722 yards in 2007. In addition, he twice has tutored a pair of 1,000-yard rushers in the same season since 2001, as well as three Pac-10 rushing champions in James (2010), Stewart (2007) and Saladin McCullough (1997).

James not only became Oregon's first NCAA rushing champion (152.9 avg.), he became the school's first Doak Walker Award honoree as the nation's top running back as well as the University's top Heisman Award finisher (3rd) in program history.

Running backs have rushed for 100 yards or more 39 times over the past four years, a feat the position has produced 92 times since 1997.

After spending the off-season prior to 2007 administering innovative vision drills with Stewart, his prize pupil shattered the former single-season rushing record by nearly 400 yards and featured two games of more than 250 yards - the third and fourth highest single-game totals in school history. The junior also became the first Duck to surpass 2,000 all-purpose yards in a season, finishing with 2,481.

Campbell's players tend to develop versatility, as evidenced by a pair of his 1,000-yard rushers tallying more than 50 receptions in one year. No better example of that flexibility can be offered than Terrence Whitehead. In 2004, Whitehead rushed for 1,144 yards, good for second in the Pac-10. The following season, his talents as a receiver were utilized as an extension of the Ducks' running game as the program's third-leading rusher of all time caught 52 passes for 490 yards to complement his 679 yards on the ground. He became only the second player in school history to accumulate 100 or more yards rushing and receiving in the same game.

In addition to his responsibilities coaching Oregon's running backs, Campbell was in charge of the team's kickoff return game in 2005, which led the Pac-10 (9th in the country) as well as featured the nation's top individual kickoff returner in Stewart (33.67 avg.).

Campbell's tutelage helped Onterrio Smith (2001, '02), Maurice Morris (2000, '01) and Reuben Droughns (1999) become the seventh, eighth and ninth 1,000-yard rushers in Oregon history -- the first time the Ducks ever boasted of consecutive 1,000-yard ground-gainers. Droughns and Smith were honored as his fourth and fifth, first-team all-conference pupils in 1995 and 2002. Morris, a second-round NFL pick in 2002, became the first back-to-back 1,000-yard rusher in school history, followed by Smith (2001-02) and James (2009-10).

The Ennis, Texas, native's efforts have been extremely visible in the school's record books as 15 of the Ducks' top-17 single-season rushing totals have been recorded by Campbell protégés. Campbell's backs also own Oregon's top seven career rushing marks.

A proponent of the importance of developing running backs' all-around game, he successfully tutored the school's first conference rushing champion in 26 years in McCullough. One of the Ducks' best tailbacks also established a school record by rushing for 15 TDs in only seven games in 1996 and equaled a Pac-10 record with five touchdowns in one outing. The former standard was bettered in 2008 when LeGarrette Blount ran for 17 touchdowns, and again with James' 19 rushing scores.

In 1995, Campbell brought the potentially outstanding career of senior tailback Ricky Whittle to fruition. Whittle crushed Oregon's one season all-purpose yardage record prior to McCullough bettering it, and became the program's first running back ever to haul in 50 passes.

In 1998, he honed the talents of Droughns into becoming the first player in school history to rush for better than 200 yards in more than one game in the same season before injuries halted his ascension as one of the nation's best.

A former starting fullback at UCLA, the 58-year-old Campbell came to Oregon in 1983 after one season at Pacific. In addition to his playing days at UCLA in the early 1970s, where he scored two touchdowns in one of Oregon's biggest victories ever (1970, 41-40), he was a graduate assistant for the Bruins in 1976-78.

Campbell (2/15/51) and his wife, Alola, have three daughters, Phillis McKinney, Traci and Janee; and one son, Bryan.

Scott Frost

wide receivers
two seasons at Oregon
University of Nebraska, 1997

Scott Frost joined the Oregon coaching staff as its wide receivers coach on Jan. 26, 2009, with the hopes of utilizing his experience as a national championship quarterback as well as a six-year NFL veteran. The Lincoln, Neb., native came to Eugene after being elevated to co-defensive coordinator for the University of Northern Iowa in 2008. He served as the Panthers' linebackers coach in 2007.

He brought with him a mentality instilled as a defender as well as the moxie of a national championship competitor. He has been instrumental in instituting a toughness among his receivers that enhanced their ability as downfield blockers, which has contributed to the success of the Ducks' running game.

While Oregon returned a trio starting wide receivers from 2009, Frost played a vital role in improving the production as a receiver of all three while further honing their blocking skills. No further proof of that improvement is more evident than Jeff Maehl as the senior first-team all-conference choice set the Ducks' single-season record with 12 touchdown catches during the regular season while extending his consecutive receptions streak to 32 games.

As a collegiate standout, Frost quarterbacked the University of Nebraska to the 1997 national championship and a 42-17 Orange Bowl win over Tennessee.

In 2009, he inherited one of the Ducks' most inexperienced units and enhanced its development into a reliable corps. Included was the improvement of Maehl, as the team's leading receiver as he capped 2010 by earning first-team all-conference accolades.

Frost (1/4/75) was tutored by some of the legendary football coaching minds of all time, including Stanford's Bill Walsh, Nebraska's Tom Osborne and the New York Jets' Bill Parcels.

He brings with him a wide array of experience as a standout collegiate quarterback and a coaching background that encompasses the defensive side of the ball, as well as special teams.

After quarterbacking the Huskers to an unblemished 13-0 record in 1997, the second-team all-Big 12 Conference standout broke into the coaching ranks as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 2002 before filling the same role at Kansas State in 2006. He then migrated to Northern Iowa in 2007 in a full-time role working on the defensive side of the football.

The Panthers finished the 2008 tied for third in the Football Championship Subdivision in takeaways (40) and ninth in the country in scoring defense (17.7 ppg) in his final year at the school, dropping a 21-20 decision to Richmond in the national championship semifinals. In 2007, Northern Iowa finished sixth in the country against the run (91.0 avg.) and seventh in scoring defense (16.9 avg.).

UNI completed the 2008 season with a 12-3 record, leading the Missouri Valley Football Conference in rushing defense (107.1 avg.) and scoring defense, after posting a 12-1 mark in 2007.

He is no stranger to the West Coast as he began his collegiate career as a two-year letterman at Stanford in 1993 and '94 before transferring to Nebraska in 1995. The Huskers' two-year starter and 1997 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award finalist quarterbacked teams to a 24-2 record while completing 192 of 359 passes for 2,677 yards and 18 career touchdowns. Included was a senior season in which he became only the 10th player in college football history to both run (1,095 yds.) and pass (1,237 yds.) for 1,000 yards in a single season.

His 2,332 yards of total offense fell one yard shy of what was then the school's single-season record set in 1971.

Following his collegiate career, Frost was selected in the third round (67th pick) of the 1998 NFL Draft by the New York Jets, where he played safety and special teams from 1998-2000. His professional football career included stops in Cleveland (2001), Green Bay (2001-02) and Tampa Bay (2004).

The two-time first-team academic all-conference choice and 1997 second-team Academic All-American graduated with a B.A. degree in finance from Nebraska in 1997.

Steve Greatwood

running game coordinator
25 seasons at Oregon
University of Oregon, 1980

Steve Greatwood concludes his 19th season coaching Oregon's offensive line in 2010, as well as his 26th year on the Ducks' coaching staff.

The 31-year coaching veteran and Eugene native, who has logged more than a quarter century at his alma mater, returned to Oregon as its defensive line coach prior to the 2000 season following a five-year hiatus, two of which he spent coaching in the NFL.

The 52-year-old Greatwood was an integral part of Oregon's coaching staff for the first 15 seasons of his career that concluded with a berth in the 1995 Rose Bowl, and concentrated his efforts on the offensive line from 1982-94. That included the last six years of his previous tenure with the Ducks.

Yet he assumed the additional responsibilities as the Ducks' running game coordinator in 2009 after playing a major role in five of the program's most prolific running attacks in school history since 2006.

From a statistical standpoint, it could be argued that Greatwood's 2008 interior offensive front was one of the best in school history. Oregon ranked second nationally in rushing (280.1 avg.), leading the Pac-10 for the third time in as many years and setting a school record with 3,641 yards on the ground. It also finished second in the league in fewest quarterback sacks allowed (20) in 2008.

For his efforts, Greatwood was singled out as the nation's college football Assistant Coach of the Year by FootballScoop.com following the 2008 campaign, in addition to being previously praised as one the top assistant coaches in the country by Rivals.com.

Yet 2009 has to rank among his more gratifying years as watched over a rebuilt unit that had lost three of its standouts to the NFL and molded an ever-improving interior line that played a major role in the Ducks' leading the Pac-10 in rushing offense for the fourth-straight season.

Not only did Oregon lead the league in rushing for a fifth year in a row in 2010 (4th nationally), it also finished tied for fifth nationally in fewest quarterback sacks allowed (8).

One of the nation's most underrated technicians, the former Oregon standout tutored two-time All-American Max Unger, who was chosen in the second round of the 2009 NFL Draft by Seattle. Unger was one of only three Oregon offensive linemen drafted into the NFL over the past two years, while a fourth was signed as a free agent.

In addition to the Ducks first setting a single-season rushing record in 2007, they established a single-game record 465 yards on the ground at Washington.

During the 2006 season, the Ducks allowed only 16 sacks to place second in the league in fewest sacks allowed, as his unit played a big part in Oregon leading the league in rushing (182.2 avg.) for the first time since 1955.

His return on the offensive line in 2005 paid immediate dividends as he molded a relatively inexperienced group that included only two returning starters into one that was forced to quickly adapt to a new offensive scheme. The result was an offense which improved from 10th to third in the Pacific-10 Conference in quarterback sacks allowed (20) as well as ranked among the top 20 in the country in three of four major offensive categories.

While overseeing the defensive line in 2004, the Ducks held their opponents to 122.1 yards per game on the ground -- the fifth consecutive season under Greatwood the UO defensive line has helped hold its opponents under 125 yards per game rushing.

In 2003, the Duck defensive line helped post a 16th national ranking against the run (107.1 ypg.), highlighted by a trio of all-league defensive linemen. Both Igor Olshansky and Junior Siavii were drafted in the second round of the 2004 NFL draft.

Oregon's rushing defense ranked first in the conference in 2000 (118.2 avg.) and second in 2001 (115.3 avg.), while the 2002 unit allowed 118.2 yards per game to rank 25th nationally.

Greatwood's defensive lines held opponents to negative rushing yards on four occasions in the five seasons, including -3 net yards by No. 3 Michigan in 2003, and limited a Colorado team that came into the 2002 Fiesta Bowl ranked eighth in the country in rushing (228.5 avg.) to only 49 yards.

Following the 1994 season and Oregon's Pacific-10 Conference championship, Greatwood departed with former Ducks' head coach Rich Brooks to coach the offensive line and tight ends with the St. Louis Rams. He rejoined the collegiate ranks in 1997 at Maryland before returning to the West Coast the following year and heading the offensive line at USC. During his stay with the Trojans, he aided in the development of two-time all-conference lineman and All-American Travis Claridge.

In addition to his various coaching duties along the offensive line, Greatwood spent all but one year of his previous stint as a full-time Oregon assistant also tutoring the team's tight ends.

The former Churchill High School standout completed his playing career with an appearance in the Hula Bowl in 1980 and was the recipient of the Bob Officer Award, given to the Oregon player who makes a major contribution to the success of the program despite physical adversity. Greatwood later signed as a free agent with the San Francisco 49ers before initiating his coaching career as the Ducks' defensive graduate assistant for two years.

Greatwood (8/15/58) and his wife, Sheri, have three daughters, Kallie, Emmy and Tessa.

Mark Helfrich

offensive coordinator
two seasons at Oregon
Southern Oregon University, 1996

Concluding his second year on the staff as Oregon's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach is Mark Helfrich, who has wasted little time in putting his stamp on the school's offensive success. Not only has he positioned himself as a top strategist, he has proven invaluable as a quarterback tutor.

It hasn't taken others long to recognize his value as he was named by FootballScoop as its 2010 national quarterbacks coach of the year in addition to being one of three finalists as its national offensive coordinator of the year.

At the forefront of his proficiency was the development of an inexperienced starting quarterback into a second-team Pacific-10 Conference all-league choice as sophomore Darron Thomas finished second in the conference in passing efficiency and third in total offense (250.8 avg.) while pacing the Pac-10 (11th nationally) in most points accounted for (16.5 per game).

The Ducks' former graduate assistant coach (1997), who spent the previous three seasons in an identical role at the University of Colorado, brought with him 11 years of experience coaching quarterbacks at the NCAA Bowl Subdivision (formerly Division I) level at Boise State (1998-2000), Arizona State (2001-05) and Colorado (2006-08), and concentrated his efforts on improving the efficiency of the Ducks' passing attack.

The affable Oregon native wasted little time in substantiating the notion that he is one of the nation's bright young offensive minds. Oregon has led the Pac-10 in scoring offense each of his first two years back in his home state, ranking seventh and first in the country in 2009 and 2010, respectively. He also contributed to the development of quarterback Jeremiah Masoli, who was selected as a second-team Pac-10 all-conference honoree as well as voted as a co-recipient of the Ducks' Most Outstanding Player award.

Helfrich's pupils gained some of their greatest acclaim during his tenure at Arizona State under former Oregon offensive coordinator Dirk Koetter, who elevated Helfrich to passing game coordinator in 2003. During his five-year stint in Tempe, Arizona State blossomed into one of the top passing teams in the country. In his final season there, the Sun Devils finished third in the NCAA and led the Pac-10 in passing yards per game (373.9 avg.). ASU posted a school-record 4,481 yards passing that season to elevate its five-year total to 18,686 yards (306.3 avg.) during his stay.

His quarterbacks put up numbers that ranked in the top three of the Pac-10 all five years he was there, leading the league twice (2004, 2005) and finishing second in 2001. His units also finished among the top 10 in the NCAA on three different occasions, as ASU was ranked fifth nationally in 2004 and ninth in 2002 before the school's highest finish ever with the third place effort in 2005.

Ranking as the third-youngest offensive coordinator in the nation at Colorado in 2008 (and the youngest at a BCS school), Helfrich's offense's were marked by improvement each of his first two seasons in Boulder, with the Buffaloes' 5-7 record highlighted by a 17-14 overtime win over West Virginia his final year there.

His first Colorado offense averaged 4.5 yards per carry and featured three different players rushing for 500 yards or more for just the 10th time in school history. His 2007 team was just the third in school history to gain 1,000 yards on offense more than the previous season in the same number of games, and scored 30 or more points five times in a season for the first time since 2002.

At Arizona State, he played a significant role in the development of quarterback Andrew Walter, who set school records for both career (85) and single-season touchdowns (30) in addition to shattering the previous Pac-10 record for career touchdown passes, previously set by Stanford's John Elway (77). One of only two players in ASU history to tally 3,000 passing yards in a season, Walter did it for a third time in 2004 with a best of 3,150 yards.

Walter, a third-round NFL draft pick by the Oakland Raiders in 2005, finished his collegiate career as the Sun Devils' career record holder in nearly every passing category, in addition to total offense. When Walter missed the 2004 Sun Bowl against Purdue with an injury, Helfrich tutored sophomore understudy Sam Keller to the game's MVP honors.

Working three years as the quarterback coach at Boise State, he tutored one of school's all-time greats in Bart Hendricks, the 1999 and 2000 Big West Conference Player of the Year. In 2000, he guided the Broncos to the country's fourth-best passing offense with 321.5 yards per game.

Helfrich (10/28/73) graduated with a bachelor's degree in biology from Southern Oregon University in 1996, where he lettered four years at quarterback. He was an NAIA Scholar-Athlete as a sophomore in 1993, leading the nation in total offense while earning NAIA honorable mention All-America accolades and first-team Columbia Football Association honors in the process. That season, he accumulated 3,196 yards of total offense, including 2,712 passing (23 touchdowns) and 484 rushing (three scores), and topped the 400-yard mark in single-game total offense three times.

He began his coaching career as running backs coach at his alma mater in 1996 before playing and coaching (offensive coordinator) in Europe with the Vienna (Austria) Vikings in the winter of 1997.

Born in Medford, the 1992 Marshfield (Coos Bay) High School graduate and his wife, Megan, are the parents of one son, Max, and one daughter, Maggie.

John Neal

secondary eight seasons at Oregon
Brigham Young University, 1980

John Neal, who has accumulated 29 years of experience tutoring defensive secondaries in the Pac-10, SEC, Conference USA and WAC, is concluding his eighth season with Oregon.

The personable Mountain View, Calif., native has fostered an aggressive mentality amongst his players at every place he has coached that is conducive to his defenders focusing on the football as much as opponents' receivers. The result has been the building of secondaries that have been among the nation's leaders in interceptions while producing numerous NFL draft picks, including four over the past two seasons. One of those picks - Jairus Byrd - led the NFL with nine interceptions as a rookie with the Buffalo Bills in 2009.

Oregon ranks fourth in the country interceptions (20) in 2010, with teammates John Boyett and Cliff Harris leading the Pacific-10 Conference with five picks each. Harris also leads the country in passes defended (20) while earning second-team All-America honors, while Talmadge Jackson III was named to the first-team all-conference team.

What made '09 remarkable in Eugene was the fact Neal had to develop a secondary without two of its top three expectant stalwarts at cornerback with the season-ending injuries to Walter Thurmond III and Willie Glasper in the first half of the season. Yet Talmadge Jackson III tied for fourth in the Pac-10 in interceptions (4) and sixth in passes defended (0.83 avg.).

While UO's interceptions were down slightly in 2009 (14, 3rd in the Pac-10), Neal has been instrumental in teaching the art of the takeaway and has the numbers to prove it. Oregon's 16 interceptions in 2008 tied for third in the conference, with Thurmond tying for the league lead and Byrd finishing third.

The Ducks' 20 interceptions in 2007 were the second-most among Pac-10 schools and tied for tenth in the nation, while Byrd tied for ninth (0.54 avg.) among individuals. Neal's defensive backs were a large factor in UO's top Pac-10 ranking in turnover margin (0.69 avg., 18th nationally), after a second-to-last finish in that statistic in 2006.

Oregon finished second in the country with 23 interceptions in 2005, marking the program's most thefts in 37 years, as well as the Pac-10 Conference's runner-up in pass efficiency defense (26th nationally). Neal played a major role in the Ducks leading the league in total defense for the first time since 1958 as well as pass defense for the second straight year in 2006.

He has been credited with much of the development of his players as well, with at least three members of the secondary earning all-conference honors in five of the past six seasons. Byrd and Patrick Chung were both named first-team Pac-10 all-conference choices in 2008 – the first time in 14 years the Ducks have been accorded more than one first-team league honoree in the secondary in the same year – increasing his number of first-team Pac-10 pupils to five. Chung attracted All-America attention in each of his final two seasons.

In Neal's first two years at Oregon, the Ducks' pass defense improved from a 291.2 avg. in 2002 to 216.8 avg. in 2004. Another vast improvement was the team's pass efficiency defense, ranking 46th (120.7, 2003) and 57th (121.8, 2004) nationally after landing at 102nd (140.8) in 2002.

Prior to arriving at Oregon during the spring of 2003, Neal spent eight seasons coaching the defensive backs at Alabama-Birmingham. He served as defensive coordinator his last two seasons at UAB, where the Blazers ranked fifth in the country in total defense in 2001 (265.9 avg.). UAB was also among the national defensive leaders in 2000, ranking ninth in the country in scoring defense and 11th in total defense.

Helping UAB upgrade from the NCAA Division I-AA level to full I-A status in Conference USA, Neal assisted in building the Blazers' program in many ways aside from his work in the secondary. He volunteered to be the team's recruiting coordinator, a position he held for six years. He also assumed duties with UAB's special teams, instructing punters, the punt return team and kick return team at some point during his eight-year tenure. The Blazers blocked nine punts, returning five for touchdowns, during a two-year span from 1999-2000.

Before moving to UAB in 1995, Neal served as secondary coach at Mississippi from 1992-94. His 1993 squad led the nation in total defense (234.5 avg.) and ranked third against the pass while allowing the fewest touchdown passes in the country (5). The Rebels finished sixth nationally in pass defense while leading the SEC in 1994.

Neal sandwiched a pair of stints as defensive coordinator at Pacific (1990-91) and East Tennessee State (1986) around a three-year tenure as defensive backs coach at Oregon State (1987-89). The Beavers ranked second in the Pac-10 in pass defense in 1987 (183.3 avg.).

The 1980 Brigham Young graduate earned all-WAC honors at defensive back as a senior in 1979. He transferred to BYU after playing two seasons at Foothill Junior College (Los Altos Hills, Calif.).

He broke into the coaching profession as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in the spring of 1980 before moving to New Mexico to coach the Lobos' junior varsity team that fall. Neal was elevated to full-time assistant coach at New Mexico in 1981, where he coached linebackers and defensive backs through the 1985 campaign.

Neal (12/18/56) and his wife, Jan, are the parents of one son, Casey, and two daughters, Caitlin and Christin.

Tom Osborne

special teams coordinator | tight ends
10 seasons at Oregon
Washington State University, 1983

Tom Osborne returned for a second stint with the Ducks prior to the 2007 season, with the special teams coordinator and tight ends coach restoring the levels of productivity and energy of his areas to that prior to his 2000 hiatus.

It didn't take long for Coach "Oz" to make his presence felt, lifting Oregon's units on special teams out of the bottom ranks of the Pac-10 statistical standings during the 2007 season's 9-4 campaign. The Ducks placed second in the conference in kickoff returns (23.96 avg., 14th nationally), fourth in kickoff coverage (42.9 net avg.) and ranked fifth in net punting (36.69 avg., 34th in the nation) in his first season following his return. Andiel Brown led the Pac-10 in punt returns (10.41 avg.) and Jonathan Stewart was third in kick returns (26.70 avg.).

A year ago, Oregon finished 10th nationally in kickoff returns (24.9 avg.), however better things were in store in 2010. The Ducks lead the nation in punt returns (18.2 avg.), rank 14th in the country in kickoff coverage (19.3 avg.) and 20th in net punting (38.6 avg.). Individually, Cliff Harris is rated second in the country in punt returns (19.5 avg.), while Jackson Rice improved his punting average from 40.5 yards per kick to 43.1 from his freshman year to the next.

Along the way, Osborne has been instrumental in the development of 17 All-Americans, 17 first-team all-conference standouts and 13 second-team all-league honorees in his 30-year coaching career. He was one of this year's three finalists for the FootballScoop Special Teams Coordinator of the Year award

Yet his role tutoring tight ends has not taken a back seat, as evidenced by CBSsports.com naming him one of the top five tight end coaches in the country in June of 2008. Within his last 16 seasons of his coaching career, Osborne has tutored eight tight ends who have made their way into the NFL.

He also oversaw the development of 2009 first-team all-Pac-10 tight end Ed Dickson, who became Oregon's all-time leader in receptions (124) and yards (1,557) at the position prior to his selection in the third round of the 2010 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens. Osborne followed that up by tutoring tight end David Paulson into becoming a first-team all-conference choice this season.

As a sophomore Dickson was the team's second-leading receiver with 43 receptions, 453 yards and three touchdowns. He improved his productivity as a junior with 508 receiving yards, while he accumulated 42 catches for 551 yards and six TDs in his final year to earn first-team Pac-10 all-conference honors.

In 2008, Oregon ranked 16th nationally (3rd in the Pac-10) in punt returns (12.5 avg.), while Jairus Byrd and Walter Thurmond both finished third in the league, respectively, running back punts and kickoffs.

In 2009, Oregon ranked 17th in the country in kickoff returns (24.5 avg.). He also played an increased role in the development of the Ducks' kickers, as Morgan Flint was successful on better than 88 percent of his field goal attempts.

Before returning to Eugene for a second tenure, Osborne had spent six seasons as the assistant head coach, special teams coordinator and tight ends coach at Arizona State, after coordinating Oregon's special teams and tutoring its tight ends from 1995 through 2000. During his tenure with the Sun Devils, Osborne's units blocked 11 punts.

Osborne was named the Division IA National Special Teams Coordinator of the Year by American Football Coaches Monthly Magazine following the 2003 season. His success in placing a high priority on the different phases of the kicking game has been well documented.

He coached the only team in ASU history to have both the punt return and kickoff return units rank among the top 10 in the nation in the same year (2005). In addition, he oversaw the only team in the nation to have back-to-back years ranked in the top 10 in kickoff returns (2005 and 2006).

His Sun Devils led the Pac-10 in kickoff coverage (16th nationally) in 2004 and ranked No. 2 in the country in kickoff returns in 2006. ASU also ranked among the top 27 in the nation in net punting four of his six seasons.

At ASU, Zach Miller earned first-team All-America honors in 2006 after catching 50 passes for 484 yards and four touchdowns. Over three seasons, ASU's all-time receptions leader at the position caught more passes (144) than any other tight end in the country while his yardage (1,512) was second nationally during that span.

Under Osborne's supervision, Oregon's special teams play during his first tour of duty was arguably the best in the Pac-10, if not the country. The Ducks ranked either first or second in the Pac-10 in kickoff coverage each of his six seasons, among the top three in kickoff returns five of six years and among the top three in net punting on four occasions. Before departing Eugene in 2000, Oregon led the league in kickoff coverage (17.04 avg.), kickoff returns (22.5 avg.) and net punting (37.7 avg.).

From a statistical standpoint - in addition to Dickson - Osborne also coached Oregon's other top three tight ends of all time (Josh Wilcox - 103 receptions, Blake Spence - 92 catches). During his first six years, the Ducks' tight ends annually averaged close to 50 catches for 700 yards and seven touchdowns. Wilcox, Spence, Jed Weaver and Justin Peelle each received All-Pac-10 and All-America honors.

Prior to joining the Oregon staff, the Washington native coached running backs and tight ends at Boise State for two seasons (1993-94) and coached at Portland State from 1986-92.

The 1983 Washington State graduate and former wide receiver served as a student coach for the Cougars (1981-82) as well as a graduate assistant (1983-85) at his alma mater.

Osborne (9/27/60) and his wife, Monica, have one son, Tyler, and one daughter, Ashley.

Don Pellum

linebackers
23 seasons at Oregon
University of Oregon, 1985

Few coaches have been as successful developing talent as 23rd-year Oregon assistant Don Pellum, who also continues to coordinate much of the program's recruiting efforts in addition to coaching the team's middle and weak-side linebackers.

Completing his playing career with the Ducks in 1984, the former starting linebacker continued his association with his alma mater in 1985 as a graduate assistant coach. Since then, his tenure has covered a number of responsibilities, including recruiting coordinator as well as coaching Oregon's linebackers, safeties and defensive line. He has remained at Oregon ever since, with the exception of a one-year stint as defensive line coach, strength coach and academic coordinator at Willamette University in 1987 and three years heading up the recruiting efforts at the University of California (1990-92).

No team was better against the run in conference games during Oregon's most recent Rose Bowl run in 2009, thanks to his group. Pac-10 foes averaged only 118.6 rushing yards per contest. Pellum's 'backers also had a role in UO's league-best total defense in Pac-10 play (316.0 avg.).

Two of his pupils - Casey Matthews and Spencer Paysinger - shared honors as the Ducks' second-leading tacklers a year ago before elevating their status as the team's top tacklers in 2010.

In addition to sharing Oregon's Most Outstanding Player honors, Matthews also earned first-team Pacific-10 Conference all-league plaudits this year in addition to being named one of three finalists for the Lott Trophy, given to the nation's top Impact Defensive Player.

Pellum successfully molded a deep linebacking corps this past season as six of his players finished among the team's top 12 tacklers.

His unit was instrumental in Oregon ranking 14th in the country in scoring defense (18.4 avg.) in 2010, as well as 16 in rushing defense (117.6 avg.). The Ducks ranked 23rd in the country in rushing defense in 2008 (119.4 avg.) while finishing second in the Pac-10. Yet his influence over the program's success runs much deeper than just that of statistics.

Pellum has developed a knack for bringing out the best from his players while concerning himself with their development aside from football as well. His players have led Oregon's defense in quarterback sacks eight of the last 18 years, including 26 of the Ducks' 38 sacks in 1999 by the defensive front four. Duck fans also fondly remember an inexperienced group prior to the 1994 campaign that keyed back-to-back New Year's Day bowl appearances following the 1994 and '95 campaigns.

He benefitted from the Ducks utilizing one of their deepest linebacking corps in recent memory in 2009 which included Matthews, a second-team all-conference choice, and Paysinger, an honorable mention all-league standout for the first of two years in a row.

Yet few of his accomplishments could be any more rewarding than in 2005 when he transformed a unit which included only one returnee with any significant line-of-scrimmage experience at the major college level. What resulted was one that helped Oregon lead the Pac-10 Conference in total defense and pass defense, in addition to finishing third in scoring defense. While his trio of 2005 starters began the season accumulating only 89 tackles during their Oregon careers, they tallied 207 between them that year alone.

Included was second-team all-conference outside linebacker Anthony Trucks, who led the team with 99 tackles en route to pacing the Pac-10 in quarterback sacks (11, tied for 8th in the nation), tackles for loss (15.5) and forced fumbles (5, tied for 7th nationally). In all, Pellum has been credited with much of the development for 22 Pac-10 all-league honorees in the last 17 seasons, including 2002 NFL draft choice Wesly Mallard.

In 2008, Pellum assisted in the development of first-year starter Spencer Paysinger into the team's second-leading tackler (95), with all three of the unit's starters finishing among the team's top six tacklers.

One of Oregon's most popular former players, Pellum returned to coaching on a full-time basis in 1993 following six years as a recruiting coordinator in the Pac-10.

Pellum was responsible with assembling outstanding recruiting classes with Oregon and while at California, and has been responsible for directing some of the Ducks' best recruiting efforts in school history since his return. His recruiting efforts help land him on the list among the nation's top 25 recruiters by Rivals.com after the Ducks were named the No. 11 recruiting class in the country in 2007.

The Banning, Calif., native was a graduate assistant at Oregon for two years while completing an advanced degree in telecommunications and film, coaching the tight ends, and assembling the scout teams. He also has completed some work toward his Ph.D.

Pellum (1/26/62) and his wife, Marla, reside in Eugene.

Jim Radcliffe

strength & conditioning
26 seasons at Oregon
Pacific University, 1980

One of the most overlooked elements in the success of Oregon's student-athletes is Jim Radcliffe, now in his 24th year as the school's head strength and conditioning coach and 26th overall. He not only plays a significant role in the Ducks' football program as the designer of the year-round conditioning calendar but also has been quick to aid the athletic development of athletes in all sports.

While he has long been one of the integral components to the program's success – as often credited by both past and present Oregon student-athletes – his work and innovation are now recognized as one of the overwhelming contributions to the fast pace the football team has employed the past two years to eventually fatigue the opposition.

He was named one of three national finalists for this year's FootballScoop Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year award.

Radcliffe, who guided the receivers during much of the 1999 fall camp, furnishes the student-athletes with a wide variety of exercise through weight training and lifting systems, and is a noted authority in the field of exercises dealing with the improvement of speed and quickness.

The native of McCloud, Calif., became assistant strength coach at Oregon in 1985, a position he held for two years before assuming the direction over his specialty.

Radcliffe taught and coached a variety of sports and was the athletic trainer for four years at Aloha High School from 1980-83.

He then did graduate study at Colorado and worked in private business prior to joining the Ducks' staff. Graduating from Pacific (Ore.) with a degree in physical education and health in 1980, he played four seasons at defensive back and was captain of the special teams. Radcliffe earned his Master's in biomechanics from Oregon in 1992.

Radcliffe (2/10/58) is active in national organizations surrounding his profession and is certified by the United States Weightlifting Federation. He also has written books, been published in numerous professional journals and produced videos on plyometrics, one of the most effective exercise techniques.

Radcliffe's wife, Janice, is an instructor and fitness director in the University's department of physical education and recreation.

Jeff Hawkins

director of football operations
10 seasons at Oregon
Bridgewater State, 1981

Jeff "Hawk" Hawkins is wrapping up his tenth year with the Oregon Ducks as the Director of Football Operations, where he oversees all administrative aspects of the football program. Hawkins served in a similar capacity under Mike Bellotti at Chico State from 1985-87. He has also had stints as an assistant coach at Dartmouth College (1987-91) and as recruiting coordinator and director of marketing and promotions at Tulane University (1992-95).

Originally from Pembroke, Massachusetts, Hawkins served in the U.S. Army (1973-76) after graduating from Silver Lake Regional High School, where his teammates included current head coaches Buddy Teevens (Dartmouth) and Tim Murphy (Harvard). Upon completing his tour of duty and obtaining an Honorable Discharge, he attended Bridgewater State College (1976-79), where he was a four-year starter at defensive end and was named captain his senior year.

After earning a bachelor's degree in physical education and a liberal arts degree with a concentration in marketing, he spent the next five years (1980-84) in the front office of the NFL's New England Patriots before joining Bellotti's staff at Chico.

Prior to coming to Oregon, he lived in New Orleans for 10 years, where in addition to working at Tulane, he served in game day operations for both the Sugar Bowl and the New Orleans Saints. During his tenure in the "Big Easy," Hawkins also completed a four-year term as vice president of Special Olympics Louisiana.

Although he lives in Oregon, he continues to serve as camp director (1995-present) of the prestigious Manning Passing Academy summer football camp, owned and operated by Archie, Peyton and Eli Manning, and located in Thibodaux, Louisiana.

Jeff and his wife Amy reside in Eugene and have one daughter, Gabrielle.

Chris Brasfield

graduate assistant coach
one season at Oregon
Texas Christian University, 1996

Chris Brasfield was named as the program's defensive graduate assistant football coach in March 2010.

Brasfield arrived in Eugene after spending three seasons coaching the running backs at Samford University, a NCAA Football Championship Subdivision school in Birmingham, Ala. Prior to that, his coaching resume includes a two-year stint as assistant football and head track coach at Chicago Hope Academy (2005-06), three years as head football and track coach at Fort Worth (TX) Country Day School, one season coaching wide receivers at Southwest Texas State and one year coaching wide receivers and return specialists at Midwestern (TX) State.

Earning an undergraduate degree in economics from TCU in 1996 as well as a Master's of liberal arts in 2001, the former wide receiver's coaching career includes 13 years of experience at the college and high school level, stints in the NFL's minority coaching internship program with the Oakland Raiders and Tennessee Titans, and nine months as a college area scout with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers.

He and his wife, Sherresa, are parents of sons, Tyson and Truman, and daughter Taylor.

Alex Miller

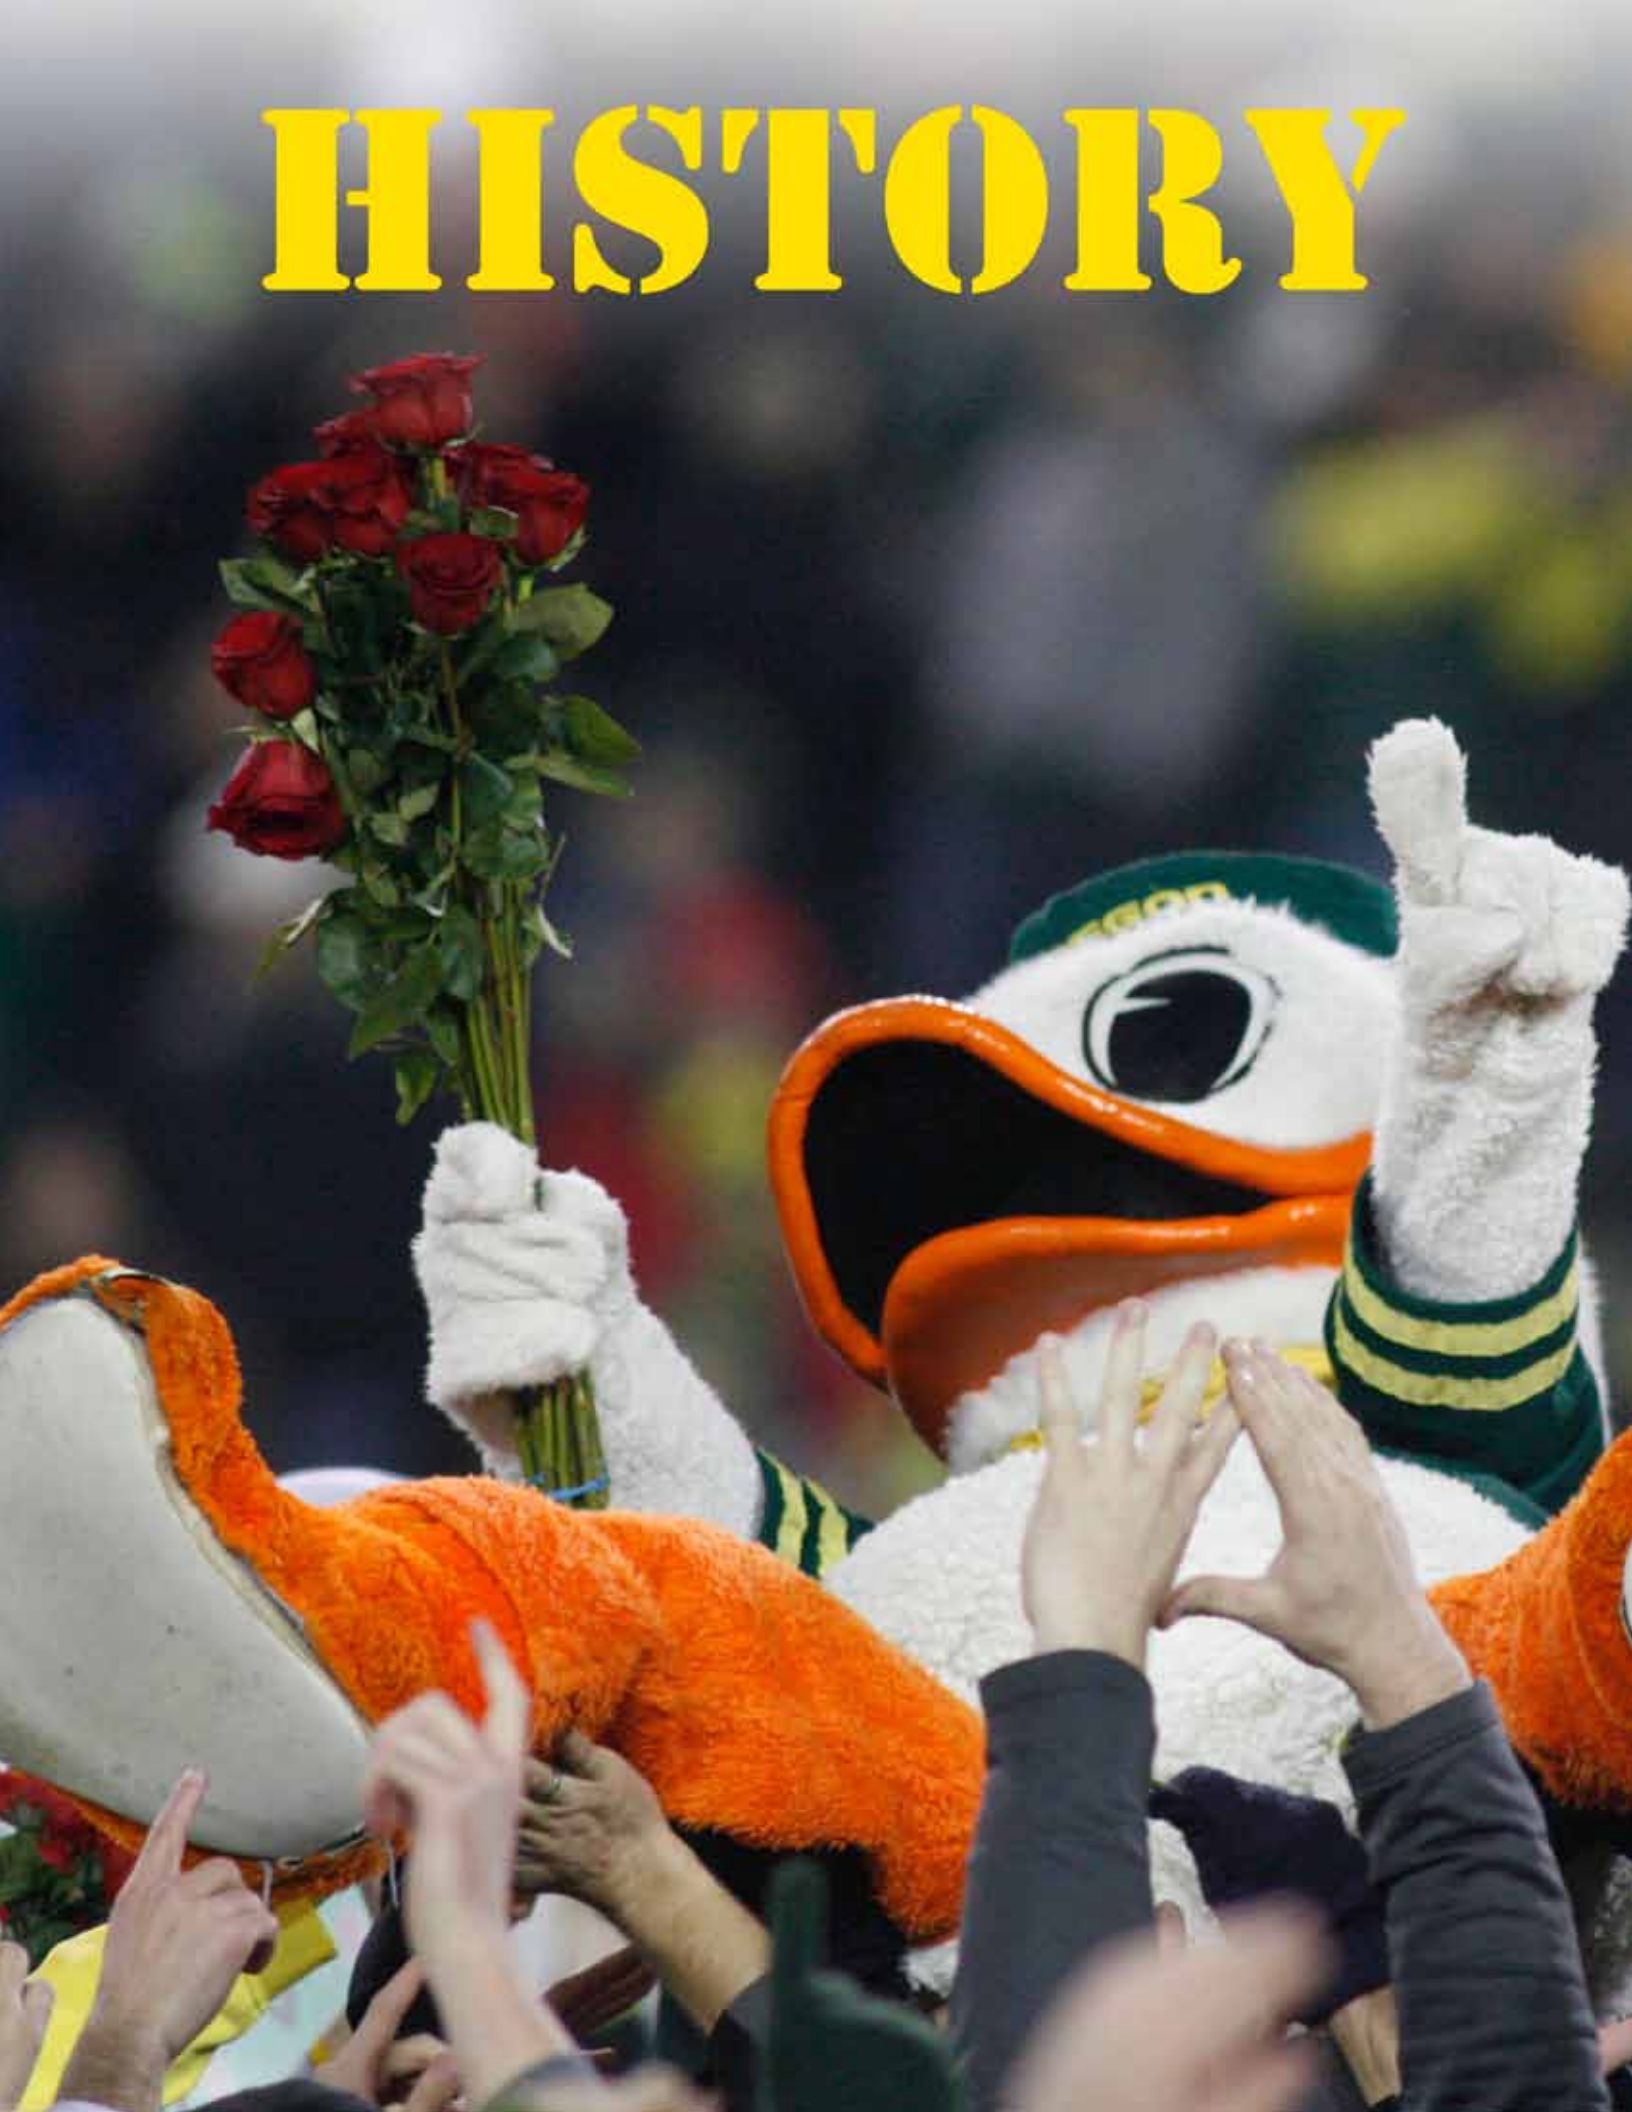

graduate assistant coach
two seasons at Oregon
University of Massachusetts, 2007

Alex Miller was promoted to Oregon's graduate assistant coach for offense in August of 2009, following one year as an intern on the football staff. He works closely with running game coordinator Steve Greatwood in tutoring the offensive line.

As a student-athlete, Miller starred at the University of Massachusetts, garnering All-America honors as a senior. A four-year letterwinner and two-time Atlantic 10 first-team center, the Fairfax, Va., native started all 50 games of his collegiate career. Following his senior season, Miller attended a Detroit Lions rookie camp in 2007 before persuing a coaching career.

He received an undergraduate degree from Massachusetts in 2007

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON TEAM AWARDS

Oregon Football Awards

Skeie's Award (fka Hoffman Award)
Presented to the team's outstanding player in a vote of team members.

Gonyea Award
The Joe Gonyea family presents the Wil Gonyea Award to the members of the football team to honor the squad's most inspirational player.

Casanova Award
Originated by Oregon's former head football coach and athletics director, is given to a first-year player who best exemplifies the ideal of competitiveness, team inspiration and outstanding performance.

Clarke Trophy
Selected as the most improved by the coaching staff, the award was inaugurated in honor of Dudley Clarke, captain of Oregon's 1909 team.

Ed Moshofsky Award
Oregon's top offensive lineman is the recipient of the Ed Moshofsky Award, which is a culmination of a year-long series of weekly citations voted by the Oregon Club of Portland 's membership.

Joe Schaffeld Trophy
Named after Oregon's 24-year veteran assistant coach and former player, is awarded to the team's top defensive lineman.

Gordon E. Wilson Award
Given to Oregon's top performer on special teams, it is named on behalf of a former Oregon football letterman (1923-24) and given by the Glass family of Eugene and Portland.

Bob Officer Award
Presented to a player who has made a major contribution toward the success of the football program despite physical adversity, and is named after the Ducks's former head trainer.

Senior Academic/Attitude Award
Is given to the senior with a high academic average who has shown an exemplary attitude.

Duane Cargill Award
Named in honor of the former Oregon letterman (1960-62), is awarded to the team's player who made a significant impact.

NOTABLE OREGON STANDOUTS

Dennis Dixon (2004-07)

Steve Barnett (1960-62) — Oregon's two-time All-American and three-time All-Coast lineman was one of the primary benefactors for Mel Renfro and Bob Berry, helping the Ducks establish a school record for total offense in 1960 (3,671 yards)…Looms as one of the program's only two standouts (along with Joey Harrington) ever to receive All-America honors on the field as well as in the classroom, and equally adept on both offense and defense…Drafted in the second round by Chicago in 1963, concluded two-year professional career in 1964 with Washington.

J.W. Beckett (1913-16) — The exceptional halfback and defensive tackle co-captained Oregon team that beat Pennsylvania for the school's lone Rose Bowl victory as a senior, before proceeding to do the same the following year for the Mare Island Marines…The 185-pound Portland (Washington High School) standout was enshrined into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame before inducted into the inaugural class of Oregon's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1992…The retired brigadier general was assigned to the football coaching staff at Naval Academy in the late 1920s and named to Rutgers' football hall of fame as a player-coach in 1972.

Bob Berry (1962-64) — Guided Oregon to three-straight winning seasons for the first time in more than 25 years as well as its first post-season triumph (Sun Bowl) in 46 seasons…The school's first quarterback ever to record back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons passing completed collegiate career accumulating 4,543 yards total offense as well as 4,297 yards and 39 touchdowns passing…The 1964 first-team All-American endured a nine-year NFL career with Minnesota and Atlanta after being drafted in the 11th round by Philadelphia, throwing for 9,197 yards and 64 touchdowns …Inducted into the state of Oregon Sports Hall of Fame in 1987, was a member of the university's Athletic Hall of Fame inaugural class of 1992.

Mario Clark (1972-75) — Oregon's first true freshman defensive back ever to make his collegiate debut in the starting lineup also became the Pac-8's first freshman to earn conference defensive player of the week accolades…Accumulated 13 interceptions for 64 yards during a collegiate career highlighted by earning first-team all-conference honors (1975) as well as Senior Bowl defensive player-of-the-game acclaim…The 18th player chosen in the 1976 NFL draft started eight seasons in Buffalo, earning a spot on the league's all-rookie team before completing pro career with a Super Bowl championship in San Francisco in 1985…NFL tenure punctuated by totalling 26 interceptions.

Dennis Dixon (2004-07) — Oregon's dual-threat quarterback put together one of the best senior seasons in school history…Arguably the top performer among all college signal callers in 2007 before a knee injury prematurely curtailed his Heisman Trophy campaign and ultimately ended the Ducks' BCS title game hopes…Guided Oregon to an 8-1 record and a No. 2 seed in the BCS standings…The Pacific-10 Conference's unanimous Offensive Player of the Year and honorable mention All-American finished ninth on the school's single-season total offense chart (2,719 yards) despite playing in only 10 games…Completing his requirements for his major in sociology in less than four years, his accolades combining his academic (3.33 gpa) and athletic talents were unprecedented in the football program's history…Finishing fourth in the balloting for Associated Press Player-of-the-Year, he was one of three finalists for the Maxwell Award (College Player of the Year) and the Davey O'Brien National Quarterback Award as well as one of five finalists for the Walter Camp Player-of-the-Year award…His academic achievements were even more impressive as the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-District quarterback was one of five student-athletes in school history (and Oregon's first football player ever) to be bestowed with the NCAA Top VIII Award…Completed his collegiate career as the single-season and all-time school record-holder in passing completion percentage (67.7% and 63.9%, respectively)…Also established the school's standard for most career rushing yards (1,208) by an Oregon quarterback, while his 583 yards on the ground in 2007 finished second only to Reggie Ogburn's 644 yards from 1979 among the school's signal callers…Concluded his career sixth on Oregon's all-time list for total offense (6,339 yards) and eighth in passing yards (5,129)…A major league baseball prospect in the Atlanta Braves organization, he was drafted in the fifth round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the Pittsburgh Steelers and won a Super Bowl ring as a rookie...In his lone 2009 appearance, completed 12 of 26 passes for 145 yards and one TD (adding a second rushing TD) in his pro debut as a starter at Baltimore..

Tom Drougas (1969-71) — Earned first-team All-America honors his senior year while blocking for the likes of Dan Fouts and Bobby Moore (Ahmad Rashad), helping pave the way for Pac-8's individual rushing leader…Also named to conference's all-academic team …The five-year NFL veteran made professional stops in Baltimore, Denver, Kansas City and Miami after being the 22nd player chosen in the 1972 NFL draft.

Dan Fouts (1970-72)

Dan Fouts (1970-72) — Oregon's 1972 MVP, became school's first quarterback to eclipse the 2,000 single-season passing yards barrier…Set no fewer than 19 school records, including total offense (5,871), passing yards (5,995) and touchdown passes (37)…Drafted in the third round by San Diego in 1973, enjoyed a stellar 14-year professional career, passing for 43,040 yards and 254 touchdowns…Established NFL records for most 300-yard games (51) and 3,000-yard seasons (6)…One of only three pro quarterbacks to throw for more than 40,000 yards during a career, set eight NFL records and 42 team marks before retiring in 1987… The 1982 NFL MVP played in six Pro Bowls before being inducted into NFL Hall of Fame in July 1993…Named to state of Oregon's Sports Hall of Fame as well as university's Athletic Hall of Fame.

NOTABLE OREGON STANDOUTS

Russ Francis (1973) — Regarded as one of NFL's most prolific tight ends of his time despite lettering in football at Oregon only one season…Suffering a broken leg during Oregon's 1972 season, returned following year to catch 31 passes for 495 yards and four TDs…The 1973 all-league honoree was selected 16th in the 1975 NFL draft by New England…Retired in 1989 following a 14-year career with the Patriots and San Francisco…The four-time Pro Bowl selection compiled 5,262 yards, 393 catches and 40 touchdowns in his career and was a member of the 49ers' 1985 Super Bowl champions.

Vince Goldsmith (1977-80) — The defensive tackle's 5-foot-11, 230-pound stature didn't serve as an obstacle — it only proved to make his feats that more amazing… The two-time first-team all-conference choice not only looms as school's only defensive lineman ever to receive the Morris Trophy as league's top lineman (1980), he was included as part of Oregon's all-time team in 1995 by the Register-Guard…The 1980 Associated Press second-team All-American completed his career recording 281 tackles, including 34 tackles for loss…Posted 13 tackles in his collegiate debut as a true freshman starter…Parlayed best statistical season as a sophomore, accumulating 87 tackles (62 unassisted) and 14 tackles for losses…The Tacoma, Wash., prep standout excelled as a two-sport phenom in the high school and collegiate ranks, emerging from the nation's No. 1-ranked high school shot putter to a NCAA championships qualifier who remains sixth on Ducks' all-time list (63-10 1/4)…Following his collegiate career, enjoyed 10-year tenure in the Canadian Football League with Saskatchewan, Calgary, Tornoto and Hamilton, earning league's most outstanding rookie award in 1981…Inducted into Oregon Hall of Fame in 2002.

Joey Harrington (1998-01) — Graduated as one of most prolific athletes in school history, becoming Ducks' first Heisman Trophy finalist (4th) ever…Completed collegiate career third on school ledger in passing (6,911 yards), total offense (7,121 yards) and TD passes (59), yet biggest legacy is that as a winner…"Captain Comeback" accumulated 11-2 record in games Oregon trailed or tied in the fourth quarter…The two-year starter's 25-3 (.893) verdict as a starter also remains unmatched in school history…The second-team All-American on the field and first-team Verizon Academic All-America pick in the classroom, became Pac-10's first quarterback ever to lead his team to three bowl victories (1999 Sun, 2000 Holiday and 2002 Fiesta) as he willed Oregon to its highest national ranking in history (2nd AP and USA Today/ESPN)…Final collegiate stats for the 2001 Pac-10 offensive player of the year emphasized efficiency as he completed 512 of 928 attempts (.552) while throwing only 23 interceptions compared to 59 touchdowns…Not only accounted for more touchdowns running, passing and receiving (78) than any other Oregon player, scored more points (108) than any other quarterback in school history…The third overall player chosen in the 2002 NFL draft became Detroit's first rookie quarterback to throw for over 300 yards in one game (309 against Minnesota)…Spent 2006 with Miami, tossing 12 TDs in 11 games…Signed as a free agent with Atlanta in 2007, starting 10 games and recording his highest completion percentage as a pro (215 of 348, 61.8 percent). . . Finished his career with New Orleans, having completed 1,424 of 2,538 passes (56.1%) for 14,693 yards and 79 touchdowns while making 76 NFL starts among his 81 appearances..

C.A. "Shy" Huntington (1914-16) — Better known as Shy, the Ducks' 1917 Rose Bowl hero stymied Pennsylvania with four interceptions, a 15-yard touchdown pass and ran for another score…Earned first-team All-America and all-Pacific Coast Conference acclaim his final year before becoming the first individual to both play and coach the same school in the Rose Bowl…Guided his alma mater to a one-point setback in the 1920 classic while accumulating a 26-12-6 ledger in six seasons at the Oregon helm…A member of the Register-Guard's all-time Oregon team, was inducted into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1992, followed by the Duck's Athletic Hall of Fame the following year.

Hollis Huntington (1916, 1918-19) — One of the few standouts to play in three Rose Bowls, pacing Oregon's running attack during his three-year stint…Also teamed with his brother in the defensive secondary in the 1917 post-season classic before playing for him in the 1920 contest…Ran 122 yards for the Ducks in a losing cause to Harvard after rushing for over 100 yards and earning player-of-the-game honors while leading the Mare Island Marines to victory in the 1918 contest…Was enshrined into the Rose Bowl Hall of Fame in 1992 prior to earning an invitation into the Ducks' Athletic Hall of Fame in 1994.

John Kitzmiller (1927-30) — Deemed the "Flying Dutchman" for his spectacular tackles despite weighing only 165 pounds, the two-time all-Pacific Coast Conference offensive and defensive back earned second-team All-America honors his final year…Scoring 14 touchdowns throughout his collegiate career, also doubled as team's kicker, converting 13 PATs…Assisted Ducks to a 23-7 record while he was in the lineup, with Oregon losing both contests that he missed with a broken leg… Spending one season in the NFL with the New York Giants in 1931 before returning for a four-year stint as an assistant coach at his alma mater, he was named to the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in 1969.

Jake Leicht (1945-47) — The two-time all-Pacific Coast Conference choice led the league in scoring (56) and rushing (630) his final year while running for 1,253 yards in three seasons…Earned All-America accolades in 1945 and picked up the Hoffman Award the same year as the Ducks' most outstanding player…In addition to pacing the West Coast in rushing in 1947, Oregon's former single-season and career interceptions and punt returns record-holder led the country in interceptions (10) in 1945…Chosen in the eighth round of the NFL draft by Washington in 1946.

Joey Harrington (1998-01)

Alphonse "Tuffy" Leeman (1932) — Playing at Oregon only one year, achieved greatest fame as post-collegian after transferring to George Washington…Still considered among finest athletes to come out of Wisconsin (Superior), was a second round pick by the New York Giants in the inaugural 1936 NFL draft…The MVP of the '36 College Football All-Star game led the NFL in rushing as a rookie with 830 yards on 206 carries…Inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame in 1978 after named all-NFL in 1936 and '39, accumulated 3,142 yards rushing, 2,324 passing (16 TDs) and 442 receiving yards during eight-year NFL career…One of 11 New York Giants to have jersey (#4) retired…Died Jan. 19, 1979.

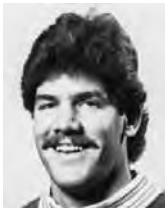

NOTABLE OREGON STANDOUTS

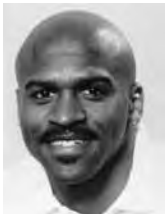

Derek Loville (1986-89) — Oregon's career rushing (3,296) and scoring (272) leader became school's first player to pace Ducks' rushing attack four straight seasons, assisting program to first post-season bid in 26 years…Also holds school records for career touchdowns (45) and all-purpose yardage (5,223)…One of only four players in school history to run for more than 1,200 yards in a single season, generated 100 yards or more on the ground 11 times…The 10-year NFL veteran accumulated 1,674 yards rushing and 16 touchdowns after breaking in with Seattle as a free agent in 1990, with stops also in San Francisco, Denver and St. Louis…Enjoyed best professional season in 1995, running for 723 yards and tying team record with 10 TDs for 49ers…Also tied for fifth in NFL history for most one-season catches by a back (87).

John McKay (1948-49) — Overshadowed by his coaching prowess, spending nine seasons as an Oregon aide (1950-58) and 16 years as USC head coach (1960-75), still owns Oregon career per-carry record (6.1 avg.)…The Purdue transfer led Ducks in scoring (48 points) for the Pacific Coast Conference co-champions his first year…Initiated illustrious coaching career immediately following playing days, tutoring alma mater's career rushing leader…Migrated as Trojans' assistant (1959) before beginning head coaching run that culminated in four national championships and national coaching accolades (1972)…Coached Tampa Bay in the NFL for nine seasons (1976-84), earning NFL coaching honors his first year…Inducted into National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame (1987), West Virginia's sports Hall of Fame (1992) and three-time Oregon honoree (1993, '94 and '95).

Chris Miller (1983-86) — The Pac-10's first quarterback to receive consecutive first-team all-league honors in 16 years set no fewer than 13 Oregon records…Threw for 42 touchdowns and 6,841 yards as a collegian while connecting on 60.7 percent of his passes…Selected 13th overall by Atlanta in the 1987 NFL draft, led the Falcons to the playoffs in 1991 and was a Pro Bowl selection after throwing for 3,103 yards and 26 touchdowns during the regular season…Completed 10-year professional career with Denver in 1999 following a three-year hiatus, accumulating 19,320 yards and 123 touchdowns with Atlanta, the Los Angeles/St. Louis Rams and the Broncos.

Alex Molden (1992-95) — Few players have made the impact as the four-year honoree who broke into the starting lineup in his first game as a redshirt freshman…Accumulated 206 career tackles and 11 interceptions while opening 44 outings…The two-time first-team all-conference choice culminated collegiate career earning first-team All-America honors, and was central component for defenses which fueled school's Rose and Cotton Bowl berths…A nine-year NFL veteran, he ended his career with totals of 263 solo tackles, 39 assists, 12 interceptions and seven forced fumbles for New Orleans (1996-2000), San Diego (2001-02) and Detroit (2003) after being selected as the 11th pick by the Saints in the 1996 drafts…Was inducted into the Oregon Hall of Fame in 2008.

Bill Musgrave (1987-90) — Recognized as the central figure responsible for initiating the most prosperous era in Oregon history…School's career record-holder (passing and total offense) remains as one of six quarterbacks in league history to throw for 8,000 yards and 60 or more TDs…Led Ducks to their first bowl appearance in 26 years (1989), surpassing school standards for single-season passing yardage (3,081) and TDs (22)…Accumulated 8,343 yards passing while completing 57.3 percent of his attempts, including 489 yards passing at BYU…The first-team all-conference quarterback (1990) also was selected GTE Academic All-American of the Year…Drafted in the fourth round by Dallas before embarking on six-year NFL career with San Francisco and Denver…Following his playing career, served NFL coaching stints with Oakland (1997), Philadelphia (1998) and Carolina (1999-2000) before returning to the collegiate scene as offensive coordinator at the University of Virginia (2001-02)…Returned to the NFL in 2003 as offensive coordinator at Jacksonville (2003-04) before a one-year stint coaching quarterbacks with the Washington Redskins (2005). Has served in his current role as quarterbacks coach for the Atlanta Falcons since 2006.

Bob Newland (1968-70) — Oregon's 1970 MVP completed collegiate career as school's most prolific receiver ever, accumulating 125 receptions, 1,941 yards and 13 touchdowns…The first-team Pac-8 all-league and All-America choice looms as the Ducks' last player to lead league in receiving (67 catches, 1,123 yards) his senior year…Drafted in the seventh round by New Orleans in 1971, accumulated 124 catches for 1,877 yards and eight TDs in five seasons before retiring in 1975…Selected as university's top student-athlete in 1971, was the recipient of school's top alumni award (Leo Harris Award) in 1991 before earning his way into Oregon's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1994.

Haloti Ngata (2002-05)

Haloti Ngata (2002-05) — Completed his collegiate career as one of Oregon's most dominant defensive linemen of all time before the first-round NFL draft choice departed school following his junior year…The school's first consensus All-American in more than four decades was voted the Pac-10's co-defensive player-of-the-year as well as the recipient of the Morris Trophy as it's top defensive lineman in 2005…Also one of three Outland Trophy finalists (nation's top interior lineman) as well as among the final five for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy (nation's outstanding defensive player)…Leading the conference's interior linemen in tackles (61) his final year, he became the Ducks' first defensive lineman to be named team MVP in 18 seasons…Capped his tenure with 151 tackles and a school-record seven blocked kicks. Included was a single-game high 14 tackles (11 unassisted) vs. California (11/5/05)…The school's highest defensive line draft choice ever was taken with the 12th pick by the Baltimore Ravens…Entered 2010 having started 61 of 62 games, accumulating 184 tackles, 6.5 QB sacks and three interceptions…Named a 1st alternate to the Pro Bowl in 2008 after named to 2006 all-rookie team..

Ahmad Rashad (Bobby Moore) (1969-71) — Few players will ever match the exploits of Bobby Moore, who established Oregon's single-game (249), season (1,211) and career (2,306) rushing records, as well as season (54) and career (131) receptions pinnacles…Established no fewer than 14 school records and was the only player to lead the Pac-8/Pac-10 Conference in scoring (1969-70) from two different positions (RB, WR)…The 1971 first-team all-conference and All-America choice was the fourth pick in the 1972 NFL draft by St. Louis, where he was selected to the NFC all-Rookie team…His ten-year NFL career culminated with a six-year stint in Minnesota and one Super Bowl appearance (1977)…The four-time Pro Bowl honoree accumulated 495 receptions for 6,831 yards and 44 touchdowns…Now an Emmy award-winning sportscaster, he became the seventh UO alum elected to the College Football Hall of Fame in 2007.

NOTABLE OREGON STANDOUTS

Nick Reed (2004-08) — Expanded on the All-America pace he established for himself as a junior, positioning himself to be considered among the top defensive linemen in school history -- both on and off the field . . . Became only second football player at Oregon to ever earn first-team All-America honors on the field (Walter Camp Foundation) and in the classroom (ESPN the Magazine), joining Steve Barnett (1962) . . . The two-time first-team Academic All-American and Draddy Award semifinalist led the country in fumble recoveries (5), ranked fourth (tie) nationally (1st in the Pac-10) in quarterback sacks (13.0), and tied for ninth in tackles for loss (20.0) in 2008 . . . The team's ninth-leading tackler not only was awarded the Morris Trophy as the Pac-10's top defensive lineman, he was voted by his teammates as the Ducks' Most Outstanding Player . . . Posting quarterback sacks in nine of his last 12 appearances, the two-time first-team all-conference pick equaled the school's single-game record for quarterback sacks and surpassed the career pinnacle (29.5) . . . His 20.0 TFLs tied for the fourth most in a single season (3.0 shy of the school record) and he finished his career second on the all-time list with 51.5 (1.5 short of the career leader) . . . One of eight semifinalists for the Lott Trophy (nation's defensive impact player of the year) and one of six finalists for the Ted Hendricks Award (college football's top defensive end) before drafted in the seventh round of the NFL Draft by Seattle . . . Posted 17 tackles in 16 appearances in 2009.

Nick Reed (2004-08)

Mel Renfro (1961-63) — One of school's top two-sport All-Americans, accumulating 1,540 yards rushing and 141 points during his football career while finishing second in the 1962 NCAA 120-yard high hurdles running for legendary UO coach Bill Bowerman…The former Jefferson High School (Portland) great departed Oregon owning a minimum of four gridiron records and two on the track…Enjoyed 14 illustrious seasons with Dallas after chosen in second round of the 1964 NFL draft, retiring in 1977…Made Pro Bowl appearances in each of first 10 seasons, was selected All-Pro five times and played in four Super Bowls…The Cowboys' all-time leader in kickoff returns (26.4 avg.) and interceptions (52) is enshrined in the following Hall of Fames: Texas Stadium (1981), State of Oregon (1983), College Football (1986), University of Oregon (1992), Portland Interscholastic League (1995) and NFL (1996).

George Shaw (1951-54) — The two-sport All-American (football and baseball) not only set Oregon's single-season passing record (1,358 yards) and the Pacific Coast Conference total offense record (1,536) in 1954, the two-way player led the country in interceptions (13) his first year and total offense his last…Still owns school's single season and career interceptions (18) pinnacle…Passed for 3,088 yards and 17 touchdowns in addition to rushing for 420 yards and nine scores in his career…Was the No. 1 pick in the 1955 NFL draft by Baltimore, accumulating 5,829 yards passing and 41 touchdowns in seven season with the Colts, New York Giants, Minnesota and Denver…Inducted into Oregon's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1992.

Jim Shanley (1955-57) — A three-year starter on both sides of the football, led the Ducks in scoring, rushing and receiving various seasons throughout collegiate tenure…Ranked 10th in the country in rushing as a sophomore (711)…Completed career as Oregon's all-time rushing leader (1,887) in addition to compiling 3,188 all-purpose running yards and 144 points…The all-Pacific Coast Conference choice earned Oregon's most valuable player honors for '58 Rose Bowl contingent…Playing in the NFL for one season with Green Bay, was inducted into Oregon Athletic Hall of Fame in 1994.

Akili Smith (1997-98) — School's one-season passing leader (3,763 yards and 32 TDs) culminated his brief Oregon tenure earning Pac-10 offensive player-of-the-year plaudits as a senior…Ranks third in league history for touchdown tosses in one season and surpassed the 400-yard passing pinnacle more than any other player (3) in school annals…Racked up 5,148 yards passing, 5,515 yards of total offense and 45 touchdowns in two seasons before rocketing to the third pick in the 1999 NFL draft by Cincinnati…Exited the college ranks by throwing for 456 yards in a Aloha Bowl setback to Colorado…Completed 215 of 461 passes for 2,212 yards and five TDs in four seasons (22 appearances/17 starts) with the Bengals. Went to camp with Green Bay in 2003 and Tampa Bay in 2005 before playing five games with the CFL's Calgary Stampeders in 2007.

Jim "Yazoo" Smith (1965-67) — A first-team All-American his senior season of 1967, the native of Yazoo City, Miss. was one of the greatest defensive backs in Oregon history…A two-time Pacific-8 all-conference pick, he led Oregon with three interceptions as a senior…Allowed opposition only 22 catches as a junior…Also an outstanding kick returner, which aided in his selection as team's most valuable player his final season…Holds the record for longest fumble recovery of 99 yards versus Oregon State in 1966…Was the 12th collegian picked in the first round of the 1968 NFL draft…He was a starter for the Washington Redskins until a broken neck ended his brilliant career…Prior to NFL play, he appeared in three all-star games, being selected for the East-West Shrine game, the Hula Bowl, and the Coaches All-America game…Was awarded the university's Emerald Athletic Trophy and was voted to the Eugene Register-Guard's alltime UO football squad.

Jonathan Stewart (2005-07)

Jonathan Stewart (2005-07) — Few players in school history have ever combined the speed and power as the 2007 first-team All-American (American Football Coaches Association)…The single-season rushing (1,722) and all-purpose yards (2,481) school record-holder was a unanimous first-team Pac-10 all-conference selection as a junior, his final year in Eugene before opting to enter the NFL Draft…The Maxwell Award (College Player of the Year) and Doak Walker Award (nation's premier running back) semifinalist ended his collegiate playing days with a career-best and Sun Bowl record 253 rushing yards (2nd in school history)…His bowl performance was barely his best effort of the season, coming after 251 rushing yards (3rd in school history) at Washington and 310 all-purpose yards (Oregon's 8th all-time) at Stanford…Joined Reuben Droughns as the only players in school history to run for more than 200 yards twice in the same season…Produced an 88-yard touchdown run in 2007 vs. Fresno State, the second-longest run from scrimmage by a Duck…His 97-yard kickoff return in 2005 vs. Oregon State ranks as the fourth-longest in school annals…Ran for more than 100 yards a school-best 14 times during his career, as Oregon compiled an 11-3 record in those contests…Completed his Oregon career as the second-leading rusher in school history with 2,891 yards and third all-time with 4,889 all-purpose yards…Finished second in school history with a 28.69 career kickoff return average…Selected as the 13th overall pick in the 2008 NFL Draft by Carolina, has accumulated 1,939 yards and 20 TDs rushing . . . Ran for 1,133 yards and 10 scores in 2009, including a franchise record 206 yards vs. the NY Giants, while earning three starts.

NOTABLE OREGON STANDOUTS

Norm Van Brocklin (1947-48)

Norm Van Brocklin (1947-48) — Originating Oregon's quarterback legacy, tabbed the school's all-time QB by the Register-Guard…Twice paced the Pacific Coast Conference in passing (1,010 yards in 1948) and punting once (40.1 avg., 1947), ending with 1,949 yards passing…"The Dutchman" led Ducks to their first bowl game in 29 years and 16 wins in 21 games, throwing for 145 yards in the 1949 Cotton Bowl…The 1948 All-American was picked in the fourth round of the 1949 NFL draft by Los Angeles, accumulating 23,611 yards, 173 touchdowns and a 42.9-yard punting average in 12 seasons…The league's three-time passing champion and two-time punting leader led the Rams (1949-57) and Philadelphia (1958-60) to league titles, claiming MVP honors his final year…Proceeded to coach 13 more season with Minnesota (1961-67) and Atlanta (1969-74)…Inducted into the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame, Pro Football Hall of Fame and the university's Athletic Hall of Fame.

Max Unger (2004-08)

Max Unger (2004-08) — It came as no surprise that the two-time first-team all-conference standout continued to get better with age, drawing All-America acclaim from Pro Football Weekly, SI.com and Rivals.com during his final year in Eugene…Tied for second in the country with 51 consecutive starting assignments, he displayed his versatility by opening two games at his former left tackle outpost while returning to his familiar center position for the other 11 outings…Captained a line that helped the '08 Ducks set school standards for rushing yards (3,641) and rushing touchdowns (47)…The Pac-10's academic all-conference honorable mention selection was named the Ducks' top offensive lineman (Ed Moshofsky Award) for the third year in a row…Grabbed national attention heading into his final collegiate season as he was included on watch lists for the Rimington (nation's best center) and Outland trophies (top interior lineman in the country), as well as the Rotary Lombardi Award (bowl subdivision's top lineman)…Was drafted in the second round of the 2009 NFL Draft by Seattle, starting all 16 games (guard/center) his rookie year.

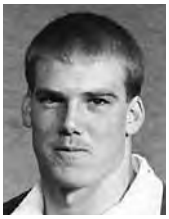

Kenny Wheaton (1994-96) — Few players have been more revered for one play but few Oregon cornerbacks were any better…Returned 97-yard interception for a touchdown against Washington as a redshirt freshman (1994) to secure the win that catapulted Ducks to their first Rose Bowl berth in 37 years…The two-time second-team All-American and '96 team MVP led the Pac-10 in interceptions as a sophomore (7) before leading team in tackles (73) his junior year…Drawing all-conference acclaim each of his three seasons, the 1996 first-team all-league standout ended his collegiate career with 205 tackles (135 unassisted) and 16 interceptions before becoming first player in program's history to opt for the NFL draft early…The 1997 third-round pick of the Dallas Cowboys played in 22 games over three seasons (one start, 44 tackles, one interception, two recovered fumbles) before injuries intervened…Played with Detroit of the Arena Football League in 2002 before signing with Toronto in the Canadian Football League in 2003…Was a mainstay with the Argonauts until his retirement in 2009, leading them to the Grey Cup (CFL Championship) in 2004…Set the CFL postseason record for longest interception return for a touchdown (116 yards) in 2004.

Kenny Wheaton (1994-96)

Dave Wilcox (1962-63) — The Boise Junior College transfer made his mark on the collegiate level as an interior lineman despite catching four passes for 57 yards as an end his junior year…Earned third-team All-Coast honors as a senior while named the Ducks' most improved player, yet gained his greatest share of notoriety at the next level…Played a key role in Oregon's Sun Bowl victory in 1963 and was named most valuable lineman in the 1964 Hula Bowl…Drafted in the third round of the NFL draft by San Francisco, accumulated 13 interceptions during an illustrious 11-year professional career in which he played in seven Pro Bowls and was selected all-NFL on five occasions…Earning his way into the University of Oregon Hall of Fame in 1993, he was inducted into the NFL Hall of Fame on July 29, 2000.

Gary Zimmerman (1980-83) — The premier offensive lineman in Oregon history as well as one of the NFL's all-time greats completed his collegiate career by being named the Pac-10's top offensive lineman his senior year…The first-team all-conference and All-Coast choice also earned the rare distinction of receiving league player-of-the-week accolades following a 1983 win over California…The 12-year NFL veteran and seven-time Pro Bowl selection was named to the all-NFL first team on five occasions after breaking into the professional ranks with a two-year stint in the USFL…The 1997 NFL offensive lineman of the year accumulated a string of 169 consecutive starting assignments before retiring from the Broncos with a Super Bowl win following the 1998 season. The 1993 inductee into Oregon's Hall of Fame was formally aedded into the NFL Hall of Fame in 2008.

2010 ROSE BOWL

Ohio State 26, Oregon 17
Jan. 1, 2010
Pasadena, Calif.
Attendance: 93,963

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) -- Ohio State's bowl woes are over, thanks to a sturdy defense and a quarterback who finally played up to his enormous potential.

Terrelle Pryor passed for a season-high 266 yards and two touchdowns, rushed for 72 more and threw a 17-yard scoring pass to DeVier Posey with 7:02 to play, ending the No. 8 Buckeyes' three-game BCS skid with a 26-17 victory over No. 7 Oregon in the Rose Bowl on Friday.

Posey had eight catches for 101 yards, and Brandon Saine caught an early TD pass for the Buckeyes (11-2), who put together a remarkably fluid offensive performance in their first trip to Pasadena since 1997.

That offense relied on Pryor, the sophomore quarterback who has had a hard time matching his enormous hype. With a Rose Bowl effort that evoked memories of Vince Young's breakout performance in the same stadium four years ago, Pryor shook off his early mistakes and led the Buckeyes confidently through a tense fourth quarter.

``I just wanted to lead the team as best I can,'' Pryor said. ``The defense helped out a lot.''

Indeed, Ohio State's defense did much of the work, largely reducing the Ducks' high-flying, no-huddle offense to ineffectiveness. Jeremiah Masoli passed for just 81 yards, while LaMichael James rushed for 70 - but a series of big plays and kick returns by Kenjon Barner kept the 96th Rose Bowl close until Pryor took control of the final minutes.

``We have an up-tempo defense and they run, they hit and they prepare,'' coach Jim Tressel said. ``Terrelle did a heck of a job.''

Oregon (10-3) made a remarkable comeback from its season-opening loss to Boise State to win its first Pac-10 title since 2001, but the Ducks haven't won the Rose Bowl since the game's third edition in 1917, back when the Granddaddy of Them All was a toddler.

Masoli's 1-yard TD run put Oregon up 17-16 early in the third quarter, but the Ducks' powerful offense never scored again. Oregon ran for 179 yards, the second-most allowed by Ohio State this season, but the Ducks were one-dimensional. Oregon, in its first Rose Bowl since 1995, had scored at least 37 points in its previous six games.

Pryor's career at Ohio State has been about his inadequacies as much as his strengths, and he has been hammered by critics in the Big Ten and elsewhere for numerous flaws in his game. Yet with Ohio State nursing a two-point lead in the fourth quarter, he took charge during a 13-play, 81-yard drive eating up more than six minutes - part of the Buckeyes' 41:37 total time-of-possession advantage.

Pryor converted a third-and-13 play near midfield with about nine minutes to play on a remarkable 26-yard catch by tight end Jake Ballard, who leaped high to snatch it. After another third-down conversion, Posey made an impressive TD catch, turning both directions and snagging Pryor's pass away from his body before tumbling over the goal line.

After Oregon's Morgan Flint missed a 44-yard field goal, Pryor drove the Buckeyes one more time, finishing with emphasis by gaining a first down with a 12-yard run right after Oregon called its final timeout.

``We knew everything they were going to do, with their blitzes,'' Pryor said. ``I just wanted to come out and show I can be a complete quarterback.''

LeGarrette Blount scored an early touchdown for the Ducks, but the once-suspended tailback also fumbled out of the end zone in the third quarter, ending a potential scoring drive.

Blount made an impressive 3-yard scoring run on his first play in the second quarter, clambering over three defenders and knocking off Buckeyes captain Doug Worthington's helmet before stretching the ball over the goal line.

The cheers Blount received on the way on and off the field highlighted a tumultuous season for the bruising tailback, who was suspended for eight games after punching a Boise State player in frustration after the Ducks' season-opening loss.

Ohio State marched 19 plays for a short field goal 1:05 before halftime, and Ross Homan's 20-yard interception return moments later put the Buckeyes in position for long-injured kicker Aaron Pettrey's 45-yard field goal at the gun, putting the Buckeyes up 16-10.

Barner's big kickoff return to open the second half set up a 38-yard scoring drive finished by Masoli's keeper. Ohio State went back ahead with its fourth field goal before Blount and Pryor traded turnovers.

The crowd appeared to be an even split between scarlet-clad Buckeyes faithful and yellow-and-green Oregon fans who reveled in the postcard-perfect weather in Arroyo Seco well before kickoff. When dusk fell early in the fourth quarter, the nearby mountains lit up with a surreal red-orange glow, setting off hundreds of camera flashes in the crowd.

2008 HOLIDAY BOWL

Oregon 42, Oklahoma State 31
Dec. 30, 2008
San Diego, Calif.
Attendance: 59,106

SAN DIEGO (AP) -- Jeremiah Masoli and Oregon were a perfect fit for the high-scoring Holiday Bowl.

Masoli ran through and over Oklahoma State's defense for three touchdowns and threw for another to lead the No. 17 Ducks to a 42-31 win over the No. 13 Cowboys in a wild, record-setting Holiday Bowl on Tuesday night.

Masoli, a junior college transfer, quickly moved up from No. 3 on the depth chart this season due to injuries. He was recruited because coach Mike Bellotti thought he'd be a great passer, then proved to be quite the runner.

"He's a tough son of a gun," Bellotti said. "He's faster than most people think and he's stronger and more difficult to take down. And he ran over and around and through people today."

Masoli scored on option keepers of 1, 41 and 17 yards in the third quarter, then threw a 20-yard scoring pass to Jaison Williams in the fourth quarter. Masoli ran over OSU free safety Quinton Moore on his 41-yard jaunt.

There were big runs, big passes and big hits in a game showcasing two of the nation's most prolific offenses, both of which feature the spread option led by running QBs. Oregon gained 565 yards and OSU had 469.

Oregon finished 10-3, the fourth time it's had double-digit wins in Bellotti's 14 seasons as coach. Oklahoma State finished 9-4 under Mike Gundy, the winning quarterback for Oklahoma State in the 1988 Holiday Bowl.

The Holiday Bowl has a history of wild finishes, and this one had five lead changes in the second half.

Oregon's LeGarrette Blount put an exclamation point on the victory with a 29-yard touchdown run during which he hurdled Moore and stiff-armed cornerback Perrish Cox with 3 minutes to play.

With the Ducks trailing 17-7, Walter Thurmond returned the second-half kickoff 91 yards to the 3. Masoli scored his first TD two plays later.

"It gave us a lot of juice and momentum," Masoli said. "We made our adjustments and came back on fire."

Masoli said the Ducks adjusted to the Cowboys' coverage, changed their blocking assignments "and that's what opened it up."

Masoli gained 106 yards on 16 carries. He completed 18 of 32 passes for 258 yards. Oregon's Jeremiah Johnson ran 12 times for 119 yards, including a 76-yard TD that eclipsed one of Barry Sanders' Holiday Bowl records.

Blount's 74 yards on seven carries gave him 1,002 yards for the season. He and Johnson became the second duo in school history to each have 1,000 or more yards. Johnson finished with 1,201 yards.

"They were much more physical than us in the second half," Gundy said. "We were not able to overcome that."

Oregon and Oklahoma State each erased records from that Holiday Bowl 20 years ago, when Sanders, the Heisman Trophy winner, ran for 222 yards and five TDs in a 62-14 romp over Wyoming.

Johnson's 76-yard touchdown run in the first quarter eclipsed Sanders' 67-yard TD in 1988 as the longest run from scrimmage in the Holiday Bowl. Johnson took an inside handoff and seemed bottled up, but worked his way to the left sideline, where he picked up three blocks on his way to the end zone.

Oklahoma State wide receiver Dez Bryant set Holiday Bowl records with 13 catches for 167 yards, among them a 33-yard TD that gave the Cowboys a 10-0 lead in the first quarter. The 13 catches were a career high for Bryant, who twice was forced out of the game with a knee injury.

The old Holiday Bowl records were 11 catches by BYU's David Mills in 1984 and Texas' Roy Williams in 2001, and 163 yards by Oklahoma State's Hart Lee Dykes in 1988.

"We lose some when Dez is not in there," Gundy said. "But we have some players who we expect to step up and make plays. ... We just weren't effective enough running the ball in the second half. They were more physical than us."

Bryant said the outcome "probably would have been different" if he hadn't been injured.

Oklahoma State quarterback Zac Robinson took a few big hits yet threw for 329 yards, completing 27 of 50 passes, and ran 16 times for 54 yards and a score.

Oregon trailed 17-7 at halftime but came back on Masoli's first two scoring runs to go ahead 21-17 by midway through the third quarter.

Oklahoma State's Kendall Hunter answered with his second TD of the game, from 4 yards, before Masoli scored again. The Cowboys took their last lead, 31-28, when Robinson scored on a 1-yard run early in the fourth quarter. Masoli's TD pass to Williams gave the Ducks the lead for good, 35-31.

The Ducks dedicated the win to Todd Doxey, a redshirt freshman from San Diego who drowned last summer in Oregon's McKenzie River.

"We talked about being here to start the season with a funeral and being here at the end to honor his memory the best way we could, which was to play well and win the football game," Bellotti said. "I think Todd is with us here today."

2007 SUN BOWL

Oregon 56, South Florida 21
Dec. 31, 2007
El Paso, Texas
Attendance: 49,867

EL PASO, Texas (AP) -- Jonathan Stewart set a Sun Bowl record with a career-high 253 yards rushing and Justin Roper threw four touchdown passes in his first start as Oregon beat South Florida 56-21.

The Ducks (9-4) scored 28 straight points in the third quarter to snap a four-game postseason losing streak, their first bowl win since beating Colorado 38-16 in the Fiesta Bowl after the 2001 season.

Oregon made it look easy against the Bulls (9-4), who boasted one of the nation's better defenses. Credit the steady play by Roper, a redshirt freshman, and Stewart, as smooth a runner as you'll find.

The Ducks won for the first time since losing quarterback Dennis Dixon to a knee injury in November, snapping a three-game losing streak the killed their national title hopes. How easy was it for the Ducks? They won a matchup of teams that'd been ranked No. 2 in the nation earlier this season handily, despite setting a Sun Bowl record with 138 penalty yards.

Roper started the scoring avalanche with a 14-yard TD strike to Jaison Williams and added a 15-yard scoring pass to Ed Dickson.

On the next play from scrimmage, Walter Thurmond stepped in front of a pass by South Florida's Matt Grothe and returned it 25 yards for another TD, giving the Ducks a 39-14 lead midway through the third.

But these hard-hitting Quackers weren't finished. Grothe had another interception on the ensuing possession, the first of two for Oregon's Jairus Byrd, setting up Roper's 8-yard TD pass to Stewart.

On that drive, Stewart got free on a 16-yard gain, breaking the previous Sun Bowl record of 197 yards rushing set in 1977 by LSU's Charles Alexander in a 24-14 loss to Stanford.

Just like that, Oregon's 18-14 halftime lead had swelled to 46-14.

For good measure, Matt Evensen added a 30-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter and defensive end Michael DiVincenzo returned an interception for a touchdown with 3:23 remaining.

Roper opened the season fifth on the depth chart and ran the scout team until a series of quarterback injuries - none more devastating than the loss of Dixon, a Heisman Trophy hopeful - reshaped the Oregon roster.

Coach Mike Bellotti gave Roper the start over Cody Kempt, another redshirt freshman. Roper responded by tying a Sun Bowl record with four TD passes and finished 17-of-30 for 180 yards passing with no interceptions.

Stewart was just as impressive. He broke a 71-yard TD run late in the second quarter, greeted by an enormous hole off left tackle as he raced untouched to the end zone to give the Ducks an 18-11 lead.

Stewart kept the momentum going after the break. His 41-yard run on Oregon's first drive of the second half set up Roper's second TD pass for a 25-14 lead, and he logged the ninth-best rushing effort in a bowl game.

There was no sign of the turf toe injury that slowed Stewart earlier this season, when Oregon dropped from the national title chase.

South Florida, which reached No. 2 in the country in just its 11th season playing football, missed a chance to win 10 games for the first time.

Grothe left late in the third after being tackled while scrambling.

The 49,867 fans were treated to lots of penalty flags. The teams combined to break the Sun Bowl record for total penalty yardage - 202 penalty yards - and it wasn't even halftime when the old mark fell.

2006 LAS VEGAS BOWL

BYU 38, Oregon 8
Dec. 21, 2006
Las Vegas, Nev.
Attendance: 42,075

John Beck passed for 375 yards and two touchdowns and Curtis Brown ran for 120 yards and two TDs, leading No. 19 BYU to its tenth straight win to end the year. Jonny Harline, voted MVP after the game, caught nine passes for 181 yards and Justin Robinson intercepted two passes for BYU (11-2), which shut out the Ducks (7-6) through three quarters.

Oregon lost its fourth in a row and was never close after BYU scored 17 points in the second quarter. The Ducks had just 120 yards of offense through three quarters and didn't score until Brian Paysinger caught a 47-yard pass from Dennis Dixon with 10:27 left in the game. The Ducks added a two-point conversion, but that still only cut the lead to 31-8.

BYU recovered the ensuing onside kick and scored 1:13 later on a 17-yard pass from Beck to Manase Tonga. Beck also ran for a 13-yard score that put BYU ahead 31-0 early in the fourth quarter.

The Ducks allowed two sacks on their first series and Brady Leaf and Dixon combined to throw for 166 yards. Both threw an interception and Oregon finished with 260 yards of offense and lost its fourth straight bowl game.

The teams played in front of the largest crowd in stadium history, breaking the previous high of 42,075 fans for UNLV's game against Wisconsin in 2002.

Beck opened the game slowly, but had four passes in the hands of his receivers that were dropped. Beck started focusing more on Harline and it paid off with a field goal and two touchdowns in the second quarter.

They connected on a 41-yard pass in the second quarter that put BYU ahead 17-0, then Brown scored on a 4-yard run just before halftime and BYU led 24-0.

After getting stuck at their own 2 on a punt, Beck completed a 17-yard pass to Harline on first down to get the Cougars out of trouble quickly. BYU drove for Jared McLaughlin's 24-yard field goal that put the Cougars up 3-0, then BYU drove 71 yards on its next possession for another score.

2005 HOLIDAY BOWL

Oklahoma 17, Oregon 14
Dec. 29, 2005
San Diego, Calif.
Attendance: 65,416

An Oklahoma interception deep in its own territory with just over 30 seconds left to play put an end to an Oregon comeback and preserved the Sooners' Holiday Bowl win. Sophomore quarterback Brady Leaf came off the bench midway through the fourth quarter to rally the Ducks from a 17-7 deficit, completing a 3-yard touchdown pass to tight end Tim Day with 3:30 remaining in the game to pull Oregon within striking distance.

Trailing by only three points, the Ducks' defense held the Big 12 Conference South Division runners-up to three plays and a punt while taking over control of the football on its own 22-yard line with 3:04 left on the clock. Completions of six and 37 yards to running back Terrence Whitehead and a 19-yard pass to freshman running back Jeremiah Johnson positioned Oregon with a chance for its first win over the Sooners in six tries. But rather than play for a game-tying field goal, Leaf's pass to Demetrius Williams inside the Oklahoma 10-yard line couldn't elude linebacker Clint Ingram's leap as Oregon fell short in the post-season for the third straight time.

After struggling in two first-half drives and a third to start the second half, Leaf rebounded to complete 11 of 18 passes for 118 yards in the final 7:13 of the game. In addition, the Oregon defense, led by senior linebacker Anthony Trucks, held the Sooners to only 42 yards of total offense in the final quarter. Trucks completed his career with a game-high 14 tackles, along with one fumble recovery as well as a forced fumble, to be awarded the bowl's defensive player of the game.

But it was a sluggish third quarter that put the Ducks in a bind as Oklahoma controlled the football for just over 10 minutes of the period and capped two of its four drives with touchdowns.

Oregon opened the game strong as starting quarterback Dennis Dixon accounted for 72 of its 116 total yards from the game's first two drives, yet the Ducks could convert the prosperity into only seven points en route to a 7-3 halftime advantage. Dixon completed eight of 12 passes for 89 yards in the opening 15 minutes.

2003 SUN BOWL

Minnesota 31, Oregon 30
Dec. 31, 2003
El Paso, Texas
Attendance: 49,864

The Gophers won the see-saw battle with 23 seconds left when kicker Rhys Lloyd booted a 42-yard field goal on a ball tipped by senior defensive tackle Junior Siavii at the line. The Ducks had taken a 30-28 lead on a 47-yard field goal by Jared Siegel with 4:16 to play before Minnesota (10-3) drove 55 yards on its ensuing possession to set up Lloyd's winner.

The Ducks used two of their timeouts in the final minute to give the offense and quarterback Kellen Clemens one last chance, but the sophomore starter was intercepted with 10 seconds remaining. Clemens ended with career highs in completions (32), attempts (42) and yards (363), as well as matching one Sun Bowl record with three touchdowns and claiming another pinnacle with a 76.2% completion percentage. Samie Parker ended as game MVP after the school's single-game record-holder broke bowl records for catches (16), yards (200) and touchdown catches (two).

Minnesota, which had ranked third nationally in rushing (293.2 avg.), dominated the ground stats with 241 yards on 55 carries. Laurence Maroney led ball-carriers with 15 carries for 135 yards and a TD for Minnesota, and Thomas Tapeh added three scores.

The game opened with a scoreless first quarter, but the teams combined for a bowl-record 31 points in the second period. Clemens opened the scoring with a 9-yard touchdown pass to Dante Rosario with less than a minute elapsed. Siegel hit a season-high three field goals (30, 32 and 47) to earn top special teams honors while Siavii was honored as the game's top lineman.

2002 SEATTLE BOWL

Wake Forest 38, Oregon 17
Dec. 30, 2002
Seattle, Wash.
Attendance: 38,241

Attempts to rebound from a disappointing last half of its regular season proved futile as big plays and a ball-control offense contributed to Oregon's first post-season setback in four tries.

After jumping onto the scoreboard first via a Jared Siegel field goal, the Ducks were unable to secure their second first down of the game until staring at a 14-3 deficit in Seahawks Stadium. Despite completing only nine passes, Wake Forest's offense took advantage of maintaining possession of the football for 34:34 while scoring on two of four plays longer than 30 yards to account for a second bowl win over Oregon in 11 years.

Redshirt freshman quarterback Kellen Clemens came off the bench to replace Jason Fife to open the second quarter — responding with his first touchdown pass as a collegian in his most extensive play to date — and helped the Ducks bounce back from an 18-point deficit.

A 43-yard Keenan Howry punt return, followed by the school's career receiving leader's 36-yard run, led to Matt Floberg's lone scoring run of the year to close the gap to 24-17 late in the third quarter. Yet the Oregon offense was unable to take advantage of the momentum as it was limited to only two more first downs the remainder of the afternoon.

Linebackers David Moretti and Kevin Mitchell led the defense with 17 and 15 tackles, respectively, while George Wrighster's five catches propelled him to the top of the school's list for most single-season catches by a tight end ever (41).

2002 FIESTA BOWL

Oregon 38, Colorado 16
Jan. 1, 2002
Tempe, Ariz.
Attendance: 74,118

Joey Harrington threw for four touchdowns and Steve Smith intercepted a bowl-record three passes as No. 2 Oregon pounded No. 3 Colorado in the 31st Fiesta Bowl.

Heisman Trophy finalist Harrington became the first Pac-10 quarterback to lead his team to three bowl wins, and ended his career third at Oregon in passing yards (6,911) and touchdowns (59).

After a first-quarter Buffalo touchdown, the Ducks scored 38 consecutive points. The game's offensive MVP led the charge with a 28-yard scoring strike to Keenan Howry and a season-long 79-yard TD pass to Samie Parker on subsequent drives. The latter marked Oregon's longest scoring play in bowl history and tied for the longest pass in Fiesta Bowl history. On the ground, Maurice Morris brought the crowd to its feet in the second half with a dazzling 49-yard touchdown scamper though a half-dozen would-be tacklers, as he rolled off the back of another. His 89 rushing yards at game's end also made him the first back in Oregon history to run for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons (1,049). Freshman kicker Jared Siegel also booted a career-long 47-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter.

Colorado tried its luck in the air in the second half, and salvaged a couple of late scores to avoid the biggest defeat in Fiesta Bowl history. The Duck defense held the Buffalo rushers to a combined 49 yards — far below their previous 228.5 avg. that ranked eighth nationally. Wesly Mallard and Dave Moretti led the Duck defenders with 13 and 11 tackles, respectively, while Smith earned the game's top defensive award.

2000 HOLIDAY BOWL

Oregon 35, Texas 30
Dec. 29, 2000
San Diego, Calif.
Attendance: 63,278

The Oregon defense limited Texas to only 88 yards total offense in the second half while denying the 12th-ranked Longhorns access to the end zone on their final three possessions of the game to cap the Ducks' first 10-win season in school history.

Quarterback Joey Harrington became only the third player in Holiday Bowl history to run, pass and be on the receiving end of a touchdown toss in the same game as he helped ignite Oregon's fourth-quarter comeback for the fifth time of the season. For his efforts, he was named offensive player of the game.

The Pac-10 co-champions relied on big plays to grab a 14-0 advantage in the opening 13 minutes, but were fortunate to trail by only 21-14 after a blocked punt with 1:11 remaining before the half. However defensive back Ryan Mitchell initiated the momentum swing with his team's second of four interceptions.

Tailback Maurice Morris knotted the score at 21-21 with his longest scoring reception of the season while Allan Amundson came off the bench to set up a go-ahead score with his longest run of his career (36 yards) to provide a brief edge.

After Texas returned the ensuing kickoff into the end zone, Oregon put together an eight-play, 68-yard drive for the winning tally but couldn't rest easy until the final pass fell incomplete in the end zone.

Cornerback Rashad Bauman halted one drive with an interception at the Ducks' 16-yard line with just over a minute remaining to play to go along with his six tackles to earn defensive player-of-the-game honors. Outside linebacker Garrett Sabol led all tacklers with 12 stops.

1999 SUN BOWL

Oregon 24, Minnesota 20
Dec. 31, 1999
El Paso, Texas
Attendance: 48,757

Joey Harrington completed a 10-yard scoring pass to Keenan Howry with only 1:32 remaining to play to lead Oregon to the Pac-10's lone post-season triumph in five tries.

No. 12 Minnesota grabbed a 20-17 advantage on the first play of the final period with its third touchdown pass of the afternoon before the Ducks came from behind in the closing minutes for the fourth time this season. Harrington, who remained unbeaten in his fourth career start, waited until 7:28 remained on the clock before engineering Oregon's longest scoring drive of the season, capping a 12-play, 87-yard drive in 5:56 with his lone touchdown toss of the day. The Portland sophomore, who had previously run for a pair of scores, connected on four of five aerials on the decisive series, including a fourth-down strike for 23 yards to Tony Hartley to keep the drive alive.

Yet it wasn't until a Dietrich Moore quarterback sack and Saul Patu fumble recovery that the Ducks could breathe easier. The Ducks' defense limited the nation's 11th-ranked rushing offense to only 96 yards, while the Oregon offense wore down an opposition that tied for eighth in the country in scoring defense. Peter Sirmon led all Oregon defenders with 16 tackles while Moore and Matt Smith each took part in two quarterback sacks.

Michael Fletcher picked off one of two interceptions and added a 16-yard punt return to set up Oregon's 37-yard field goal.

1998 ALOHA BOWL

Colorado 51, Oregon 43
Dec. 25, 1998
Honolulu, Hawaii
Attendance: 38,803

Oregon's 22-point fourth-quarter rally was not enough to overcome a season-high six turnovers and opponent's big plays as it dropped its second post-season bid to the Buffaloes in four years.

Colorado returned the opening kickoff 93 yards for a score to pace a 17-point first-quarter outburst in a game that established a Pac-10 post-season record for most total points by two teams.

Trailing 44-14 midway through the third quarter, the Ducks converted four of their next five drives into touchdowns before a fourth-down pass from Akili Smith to Bobby Nero fell incomplete with only 2:19 remaining in the game. Smith capped a brilliant senior season by throwing for the fourth-highest single-game total in school history, earning the game's co-MVP honors. Tailback Derien Latimer, making only his fourth start of the year, tied an Aloha Bowl record by running for three scores as Oregon accumulated 308 yards total offense in the second half against a squad which ended the year ranked 13th in the country in total defense (296.0 avg.).

Smith struggled to complete only eight of 21 passes in the first half before returning to form to pinpoint 16 of 25 aerials for 290 yards in the final 30 minutes. Wide receivers Damon Griffin and Donald Haynes became the school's first tandem in two years to each accumulate better than 100 yards receiving.

The Ducks' defense played deceivingly well, led by senior linebacker Chris Vandiver's 15 tackles. Colorado was limited to 130 yards of offense in the second half.

1997 LAS VEGAS BOWL

Oregon 41, Air Force 13
Dec. 20, 1997
Las Vegas, Nev.
Attendance: 21,514

An explosive Oregon offense put together its most potent display of the year while a maligned defense stuffed the nation's ninth-best rushing attack to pace its first post-season triumph in eight years over 23rd-ranked Air Force.

The Ducks tallied touchdowns on their first two plays from scrimmage and ate up less than a minute off the clock on each of their five offensive touchdowns. Pat Johnson accounted for his first of two scores on a bomb from Akili Smith to open the barrage and Saladin McCullough rambled for his longest run as a collegian to help seize the early momentum.

Meanwhile, an inspired defense which came into the game yielding over 440 yards per game, dismantled the Falcons' option attack and limited them to a season-low 211 yards total offense. The Ducks' defenders were so dominating that they refused to allow the cadets to cross midfield until the second quarter and thwarted a second attempt into Oregon territory with a Jaiya Figueras interception.

Adding to the team victory was a blocked punt by true freshman Garrett Sabol midway through the second period, resulting in a Kevin Parker recovery in the end zone and a 19-0 Oregon lead. The victors accumulated 313 of their season-high 583 yards total offense during the game's first 30 minutes against a contingent ranked third in the country in scoring defense (12.4 avg.) and 10th in total defense (289.3 avg.)

Jason Maas came off the bench to throw for three touchdowns and scrambled for 28 yards that kept a drive alive before concluding with Tony Hartley's score 28 seconds before halftime.

Yet it was Johnson who was named the games most valuable player after accumulating 272 all-purpose yards.

Peter Sirmon ended the day with 11 tackles and Michael Fletcher added nine as the defenders limited Air Force to only three first downs and 92 yards total offense in the second half.

1996 COTTON BOWL

Colorado 38, Oregon 6
Jan. 1, 1996
Dallas, Texas
Attendance: 58,214

Oregon's inability to capitalize on some early scoring opportunities proved costly and the seventh-ranked Buffaloes were able to break the game open with a few big plays of their own in the third quarter as the Ducks again returned home empty from their second straight New Year's Day bowl appearance.

At times it appeared the Ducks almost had as much trouble navigating the unfavorable weather conditions as it did the Colorado defense, which held Oregon to 139 yards under its total offensive average, but that couldn't account for the five turnovers which directly led to a trio of Colorado touchdowns. No one miscue had a bigger effect on the game's outcome as a 95-yard interception return for a second-quarter score after junior quarterback Tony Graziani had driven the Ducks to the nine-yard line.

Pacific-10 Conference all-purpose running leader Ricky Whittle returned the opening kickoff 63 yards to the Colorado 26-yard line but the Ducks were unable to advance beyond the eight-yard line and were forced to settle for a Joshua Smith field goal. Moments later, linebacker Rich Ruhl picked off a John Hessler pass to present Oregon with another golden opportunity but another stalled drive resulted in the Ducks' 33-yard three-pointer.

Little was it known that 12th-ranked Oregon would be able to penetrate the 20-yard line only once more prior to the closing seconds of the contest.

The Ducks' defense proved to be up to the task against the nation's sixth-best offense, providing the offense with field position inside the midfield stripe two more times after taking a 6-0 lead and kept Oregon within striking distance at halftime. But a 19-point explosion in the third quarter in less than eight minutes proved to be too much to overcome.

Oregon's defenders were victimized by a 62-yard pass play and another 55-yard run to set up a pair of scores and account for almost half of Colorado's 313 offensive yards. Sophomore Kenny Wheaton added his fifth interception of the year and cornerback Ronnie Gipson recovered one fumble for a unit paced by Troy Bailey's and Brian Collins' seven tackles.

1995 ROSE BOWL

Penn State 38, Oregon 20
Jan. 2, 1995
Pasadena, Calif.
Attendance: 102,247

Oregon wasn't satisfied with just advancing to the Rose Bowl, not intimidated by facing an unbeaten opponent supposedly armed with the best offense in history nor awed by the largest crowd ever to watch the Ducks play football. And, when it was over, Oregon proved it truly belonged in Pasadena.

The Ducks represented its league for the first time in 37 years in the post-season game reserved for the champion and no Pacific-10 Conference sympathizer was embarrassed to have Oregon as its emissary. The Ducks' offense pushed second-ranked Penn State around for 501 yards and its defense lived up to its advance billing.

It was Oregon's resolve that was tested when All-America tailback Ki-Jana Carter streaked 83 yards on Penn State's first offensive play to saddle the Ducks with an early 7-0 deficit. It didn't take Oregon long to knot the score and senior quarterback Danny O'Neil's second touchdown pass of the day brought the Ducks back to a 14-14 stalemate following linebacker Reggie Jordan's interception of Penn State quarterback Kerry Collins.

Oregon's offense was not appreciably scuttled throughout the game. O'Neil contributed in some form to 13 Rose Bowl records, including individual marks for passes attempted and completed and yardage through the air.

Penn State led the nation in offense with a 520-yard average, but was held below that figure by Gang Green, the acronym for Oregon's aggressive defense. The Big Ten Conference champion scored all three second-half touchdowns after taking possession in Oregon territory.

O'Neil's record day resulted in tight end Josh Wilcox catching 11 passes and flanker Cristin McLemore 10 more.

1992 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Wake Forest 39, Oregon 35
Dec. 31, 1992
Shreveport, La.
Attendance: 31,337

Oregon's third consecutive post-season game went down to the wire, but Wake Forest wound up in the winner's photo on the strength of a fourth-quarter stretch run in the first-ever meeting between the intersectional rivals.

The Ducks appeared to be clicking on all cylinders for the game's first 35 minutes, sprinting to a 29-10 advantage after Oregon's defense scored for the second time during the warm afternoon. The Demon Deacons had been victimized by five turnovers and the Ducks had taken full benefit.

Even though Wake Forest needed less than three minutes to post a 7-0 lead, Oregon scored 29 of the game's next 32 points, taking the lead when cornerback Herman O'Berry picked the pocket of tailback Ned Moultrie and dashed 24 yards for the score.

Oregon appeared to be cruising early in the second half. The Ducks realized no points from still another defensive gem by O'Berry, his seventh interception of the year, but cornerback Alex Molden duplicated it moments later and literally walked the eight yards to the end zone.

However, the shift in momentum after that was dramatic. Oregon's offense went dry and Wake Forest cruised to scores on four straight possessions to take control.

Quarterback Danny O'Neil hit 24 of 40 passes for 227 yards, but the Ducks managed just 112 yards rushing and not many after Sean Burwell's 40-yard scamper early in the game.

O'Berry was honored as the game's outstanding defensive player after two fumble recoveries and an interception. End Romeo Bandison also enjoyed an outstanding performance with two quarterback sacks and two other tackles for minus yardage among his six total tackles.

1990 FREEDOM BOWL

Colorado State 32, Oregon 31
Dec. 29, 1990
Anaheim, Calif.
Attendance: 41,450

Oregon's two-point conversion attempt with just over one minute left in the game fell inches short to prevent consecutive rallies to post-season victories in the Ducks' first-ever consecutive bowl trips.

Mistakes haunted the Ducks throughout, exemplified by Colorado State's five points to take the lead while limited to five yards and no first downs in the third quarter. Despite that, Oregon remained in position to win the game in the closing minutes behind the arm of quarterback Bill Musgrave, Oregon's bowl MVP for the second straight year.

Musgrave directed a 79-yard drive with the help of third-down completions of 31 and 21 yards to Joe Reitzug, culminating when freshman tailback Sean Burwell plunged for the score with 61 seconds left. But, Musgrave's completed conversion pass to senior flanker Michael McClellan was stopped short of the end zone.

Musgrave threw for the second-highest total in the Freedom Bowl's seven-year history and his record-tying 29 completions were one of the game's 15 records set or tied by Oregon, which also included McClellan's receptions and 46-yard kickoff return.

However, the Ducks' offense mustered only seven yards rushing and three fumbles, a muffed punt attempt and a costly penalty for roughing the passer led to 25 of the Rams' 32 points. Oregon's chance to win was made possible by Marcus Woods' block of a Colorado State extra point with just under five minutes to play in front of a bowl-record 17,500 Oregon partisans.

Sophomore inside linebacker Joe Farwell led the defense, accumulating 12 unassisted tackles among his game-high 15 stops.

1989 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Oregon 27, Tulsa 24
Dec. 16, 1989
Shreveport, La.
Attendance: 30,333

Junior quarterback Bill Musgrave directed Oregon to 17 points in the final 18 minutes and sophomore kicker Gregg McCallum provided the clincher with a 20-yard field goal with 3:07 remaining to rally the Ducks to victory in their first bowl appearance in 26 years.

Trailing by 24-10 late in the third quarter, Musgrave capped a 54-yard scoring drive with his second touchdown pass of the night, a nine-yard strike to junior wide receiver Joe Reitzug. The bowl's offensive player of the game completed five of six passes for 53 yards during the key drive. Musgrave then put the finishing touches on the Ducks' next possession with the first rushing touchdown of his career to forge a 24-24 tie.

Oregon's defense played a major role in the comeback, limiting the golden Hurricane to 102 yards total offense in the second half and holding Tulsa on fourth down to set up McCallum's winning field goal.

Senior cornerback Chris Oldham picked off a pair of interceptions to earn defensive player of the game honors and linebacker Mark Kearns added 11 tackles to his one fumble recovery. Sophomore defensive end Matt LaBounty secured the 14th annual Independence Bowl victory with a 26-yard quarterback sack with 2:12 remaining.

The error-prone Ducks dug themselves a 17-10 halftime deficit after Tulsa returned a blocked punt for a touchdown 22 seconds before the intermission. The Hurricane, who earlier had capitalized on a first-quarter Oregon interception, then scored on its second drive of the second half before Oregon was able to mount its resurgence in cold and windy conditions that dropped to 29 degrees at kickoff.

1963 SUN BOWL

Oregon 21, SMU 14
Dec. 31, 1963
El Paso, Texas
Attendance: 18,646

Oregon rode the arm of quarterback Bob Berry in the first half and then relied on its defense in the final two quarters to preserve the Ducks' first bowl victory in 47 years in the 29th Sun Bowl contest.

Playing without two-time All-American Mel Renfro due to a wrist injury, the nation's fourth-ranked offense vaulted Oregon out to a 21-0 halftime advantage, thanks in part to a pair of H.D. Murphy interceptions. But it was the SMU offense which seized the limelight after the intermission, completing 17 of 28 passes in the final 30 minutes while the Mustangs' defense limited the Ducks to only four first downs during that same span.

Murphy set up Oregon's first score with a 49-yard interception return in the first quarter, capped by Dennis Keller's nine-yard run. Murphy's second theft thwarted a potential SMU scoring drive on the Ducks' three-yard line.

Berry's pinpoint spirals earned him the game's most valuable player honors as he connected with Dick Imwalle and Paul Burleson for second-quarter scoring passes of 23 and 20 yards, respectively.

Defensive back Ron Martin played a major role in the final touchdown, recovering a Mustang fumble at Oregon's 36 before the Ducks' junior signal-caller led his team into the end zone with less than a minute remaining before the half.

Oregon's defense was up to the task of slowing SMU's comeback in the third quarter, halting drives at the two and 21-yard line. However, the Mustangs' John Roderick caught a pair of touchdown passes in the final 10 minutes to keep his team's hopes alive. The Ducks' victory was finally secured when a SMU onside kick rolled out of bounds with 24 seconds to play.

Penn State's scoring barrages in the second and fourth quarter proved to be too much for the Ducks to overcome as the Nittany Lions successfully defended their Liberty Bowl title in the second-annual contest.

Quarterback Dick Hoak didn't appear to let the 30-degree temperatures and three-foot snowbanks along the sidelines bother him, running for two Penn State touchdowns and passing for a third to account for Oregon's most decisive setback in five seasons. In addition, Hoak picked off a pair of errant Duck passes which led to the winner's final two scores.

Despite his heroics, it was Oregon's Dave Grayson who came away with back of the game honors, rushing for 93 yards and adding 43 yards in receptions. Grayson accounted for 35 of the 88 yards on the Ducks' opening scoring drive before completing the team's third-quarter march with a 10-yard scoring run.

Defensively, Grayson recovered a Nittany Lion fumble in the end zone to prevent a second consecutive Penn State score in the second quarter, but Penn State took advantage of an Oregon fumble to accumulate 14 points in the final 2:25 before the half.

The Ducks threatened to make a game of it on Grayson's scoring run to conclude the team's second series after the intermission. However, Penn State mounted scoring drives the first three times it had the ball in the final period.

1958 ROSE BOWL

Ohio State 10, Oregon 7
Jan. 1, 1958
Pasadena, Calif.
Attendance: 98,202

Oregon quarterback Jack Crabtree's fourth-down pass to Ron Stover fell incomplete with 47 seconds remaining to allow Ohio State to avert one of the biggest upsets in the 44-year history of the New Year's Day classic.

The Ducks began their last-gasp effort against the nation's No. 1-ranked Buckeyes from their own 17-yard line with 4:29 to play. A pass interference call, a 17-yard Crabtree pass to Stover and the Oregon field general's six-yard run advanced the ball to the Ohio State 43 before the team's final two attempts failed to move the ball closer to victory.

Ohio State, which had captured the Big Ten Conference crown for the third time in four years, opened the game in convincing fashion, climaxing its 79-yard drive with a one-yard run by quarterback Frank Kremblas. The Buckeyes' lone touchdown drive was kept alive by a pair of key third-down conversions.

The Ducks knotted the score at 7-7 early in the second quarter, Jim Shanley's five-yard run capping an 80-yard march in 10 plays.

Crabtree completed 10 to 17 passes for 135 yards to receive player of the game honors, becoming only the third player in the bowl's history to earn that distinction playing for the losing team. In addition, Stover established a Rose Bowl record for most yards receiving by a Pacific Coast Conference participant.

Despite the Buckeyes' 34-yard field goal with 14:02 left, Oregon had its chances to pull off the upset. But, Jack Morris' three-point try from the same spot hooked to the left at the 5:20 mark in the third quarter and the Ducks coughed up the ball on the winner's 24-yard line following Crabtree's 23-yard completion to Stover.

1949 COTTON BOWL

SMU 21, Oregon 13
Jan. 1, 1949
Dallas, Texas
Attendance: 69,000

Oregon's fourth-quarter rally fell short, despite quarterback Norm Van Brocklin completing six of 10 passes for 109 yards in the second half, as the Pacific Coast Conference co-champions were unable to defeat the winners of the Southwest Conference in the first meeting ever between the two schools.

The combined running, passing and kicking exploits of SMU's Kyle Rote and 1948 Heisman Trophy winner Doak Walker were too much to overcome. Rote ran for 93 yards and caught four passes for 55 yards while Walker completed six of 10 aerials for 79 yards and rushed for another 66.

But it was the duo's kicking exploits that inflicted the most first-half damage. The two-time All-America Walker pulled off a 79-yard quick kick to the Ducks' one-foot line and Rote successfully duplicated the effort with an 84-yard boot rolling dead at the 12 in the second quarter.

The Mustangs jumped on top from the outset, capping the game's initial 73-yard drive with Walker's one-yard run. George Bell's interception later in the opening period and Dewayne Johnson's second-quarter theft prevented further SMU damage. By the time Oregon was able to regroup around its veteran signal-caller, who became the school's first player to pass for more than 1,000 yards in a single season, the Ducks faced a 14-0 deficit.

Oregon scored its first touchdown early in the fourth quarter on a 24-yard pass to Dick Wilkins before SMU countered with its third score with 8:45 remaining. Van Brocklin's 41-yard pass to Darrell Robinson set up the game's final score by Bob Sanders two minutes later.

1920 ROSE BOWL

Harvard 7, Oregon 6
Jan. 1, 1920
Pasadena, Calif.
Attendance: 35,000

Skeet Manerud's fourth-quarter 25-yard drop kick was ruled no good, allowing unbeaten Harvard to hang on to a 7-6 victory in the sixth-annual Tournament of Roses classic.

Accounts of the game described the kick being so close that the scoreboard had already given Oregon credit for the successful attempt as Harvard players banged their helmets to the ground over the impending setback.

The Ducks, coached by the school's 1917 Rose Bowl hero Shy Huntington, lived and died by the toes of Manerud and second-team All-American Bill Steers as four other kicks either sailed wide of their mark or were blocked.

After both teams had first-quarter drop kicks blocked, Steers got Oregon on the scoreboard early in the second quarter on a three-pointer from the 25-yard line. But the Crimson came roaring back behind quarterback Billie Murray, who first returned an Oregon punt 25 yards before completing a pair of passes to the Bowl's player of the game, Eddie Casey, to set up a Fred Church's 13-yard touchdown run.

A 15-yard Harvard penalty later in the second period played a major role in the Ducks' second three-pointer, Manerud's successful 30-yard kick completing the day's scoring.

The Ducks' third-quarter field goal attempt fell short before both teams had attempts blocked in the final 15 minutes. Oregon still possessed a golden opportunity to take the lead when it started its final drive on Harvard's 18-yard line. The lack of a passing threat enabled Harvard to keep the offense out of the end zone en route to Oregon's final ill-fated drop kick.

The Crimson, which accumulated only nine first downs all afternoon, was then able to run out the clock before the final gun. The team amassed 272 yards on the ground, Hollis Huntington rushing for 122 yards in his third Rose Bowl in four years (he played for Mare Island in the 1918 contest.

1917 ROSE BOWL

Oregon 14, Pennsylvania 0
Jan. 1, 1917
Pasadena, Calif.
Attendance: 27,000

Oregon All-American Shy Huntington turned in one of the more remarkable individual efforts in Rose Bowl history to lead the Ducks to victory over heavily favored Pennsylvania in the third-annual contest.

The win marked a significant turning point in the laurels of American football as it was finally conceded that western football had achieved parity with the East Coast powers.

The Quakers mustered the game's first legitimate scoring threat midway into the second quarter. After recovering their own blocked kick, Penn utilized a series of power runs up the middle to move the ball to the three-yard line.

Instead of continuing that successful pattern, the Ivy League champions chose to test the ends which resulted in a 10-yard loss by Oregon's Bricks Mitchell. The ensuing 29-yard field goal was not only unsuccessful, but provided the Ducks with the momentum needed to win the game.

Huntington's first of three interceptions late in the third quarter set up the Ducks' first score. The team moved from its own 30-yard line on a combination of passes to R.L. Tegert and Shy Huntington and Hollis Huntington and Orville Monteith runs. Shy capped the drive on the final play of the period with a 18-yard touchdown pass to Tegert.

Oregon's clinching score in the fourth quarter was also keyed by a Huntington pass theft as Johnny Parsons broke loose for a 45-yard run on the next play from scrimmage to the one-yard line. Huntington sprinted to the corner of the end zone on the following play and added his second extra point to put the game out of reach.

The contest came to a fitting conclusion when Huntington thwarted Pennsylvania's final 79-yard drive by picking off his third pass of the afternoon (he had a fourth interception nullified because of a penalty) and the Ducks then ran out the clock four plays later.

The elder Huntington was awarded back-of-the-game honors while team captain John Beckett was selected player of the game. In one of the few individual statistics available from the game, Huntington rushed 17 times for 69 yards.

AUTZEN STADIUM - HOME FIELD ADVANTAGE

Oregon's Autzen Stadium, consistently ranked among the nation's top 10 venues to watch a college football game, saw average attendance figures top 56,000 for a ninth straight season in 2010 and set a new UO record for average home crowds at 59,398.

The facility, which originally was completed for approximately $2.5 million in 1967, underwent a $90 million facelift prior to the 2002 season that not only added 12,000 seats and 32 luxury boxes to the stadium's south-side skyline, it improved the amenities that allow spectators to enjoy a better gameday experience in one of the loudest collegiate stadiums in the country. The renovation encompassed much-needed restroom and concession facilities, a 10,000-square foot entertainment center (Club at Autzen), widened walkway and concourse areas to better accommodate the increased capacity from 41,698 to 54,000 fans, as well as new ticket distribution centers and guest services windows to cater to the needs of its patrons.

The result was a record number of fans flocking to an athletic arena which has witnessed nearly seven million fans walking through the turnstiles to watch Oregon football since 1988. Further emphasizing its popularity is the fact the Ducks have exceeded per-game seating capacity on a season basis 14 of the last 15 years and will enter 2011 boasting of a school-record 74 consecutive sellouts.

The history of Autzen Stadium is rich. Former Athletic Director Leo Harris was successful in spearheading the drive to construct a modern and economical football theater to replace historic Hayward Field. Named in honor of Portland lumberman, sportsman and philanthropist Thomas J. Autzen, the stadium is situated on a 90-acre site adjacent to Eugene's Alton Baker Park. The site is immediately north of the Willamette River and is approximately one-quarter mile north of the main campus, easily accessible by a scenic footbridge.

Following Oregon's first outright Pacific-10 Conference championship in 1994, the athletic department named the playing surface of Autzen Stadium after its winningest football coach at that time, Rich Brooks.

Autzen's natural grass playing surface was replaced in 1969 with the installation of its first artificial turf. That surface was replaced in 1976 and a new covering of OmniTurf was installed before the 1984 campaign. The field was replaced with another OmniTurf surface prior to the 1991 season. In 2001, the Ducks played on NexTurf before upgrading its surface to FieldTurf in 2002, which has polyethylene and polypropylene fibers designed to resist extreme temperature and weather conditions. Prior to the start of the 2010 season, the field's crown was removed and a new FieldTurf surface was installed.

The skyline of Autzen Stadium was first improved in 1981 with the addition of the Barker Stadium Club behind the east end zone. The facility provided the stadium with additional meeting space and functional surroundings for pregame activities prior to subsequent improvements.

One of the most significant improvements in the history of the athletics department was completed in time for the start of the 1988 season. The press box along the north rim of the stadium was relocated to the south side to make room for the $2.3 million three-story luxury suite complex. The project included the construction of 11 individual sky boxes along with a 460-seat master skysuite, with the revenue generated from the leases serving as the cornerstone for financing of the construction of the Len Casanova Athletic Center.

A $4 million MegaVision four-color video display scoreboard was added to the skyline in 1998, nearly doubling the size of the previous scoreboard.

In 2008, a high definition, 33-by-85-foot LED scoreboard was installed, giving UO the largest video screen in the Pac-10.

In the first game played at Autzen Stadium, nationally ranked Colorado defeated Oregon, 17-13, on Sept. 23, 1967, before a regional television audience. The program recorded its initial and only win in the first-year stadium that same season on Oct. 21 vs. Idaho, 31-6.

Since its opening, the Ducks have proceeded to accrue a home-field record of 159-91-5 (.633), including a 73-15 (.830) ledger from the start of the 1997 season until now. Oregon established a new stadium record for consecutive victories with its 11th straight triumph coming by way of a thrilling triple-overtime win over USC in 1999, and extended that streak to a national-best of 23 wins in a row before Stanford curtailed the second-longest streak in conference history on Oct. 20, 2001 (49-42).

The program's 14 straight Pac-10 home wins during that tenure (1997-01) established a league record that was surpassed by USC (23, 2001-07) in 2004.

The Ducks went undefeated at Autzen Stadium for the first time ever with their 7-0 record in 1990 and since have duplicated the unbeaten feat in 1998, 1999, 2000, 2009 and 2010.

Rob Mullens

director of athletics
one year at Oregon
University of West Virginia, 1991, '93

University of Oregon President Richard Lariviere named Rob Mullens director of intercollegiate athletics on July 15, 2010. Mullens arrived from the University of Kentucky, where he served as deputy director of athletics and managed day-to-day operations of Kentucky's 22-sport athletics department, with an annual operating budget of $79 million.

His background is in accounting and auditing, and he promoted sound fiscal management and self-sufficiency at the University of Kentucky. During his total of eight years at Kentucky, the athletic department's operating budget expanded by nearly 70 percent. Fundraising for the department hit record levels each of the past seven years prior to his departure.

Prior to being named deputy director of athletics at Kentucky, Mullens served as the university's executive associate director of athletics from 2002 to 2006. He served at the University of Maryland from 1996 to 2002, starting as assistant director of athletics for business and ultimately as executive senior associate director of athletics and chief of staff.

The West Virginia native was senior athletics business manager at the University of Miami (Fla.) from 1994 to 1996, and prior to that he was an accountant/auditor at Ernst & Young in Raleigh, N.C.

"Much will be expected of Rob Mullens as the university's new athletics director, and based on his track record I am confident that he will be very successful at the University of Oregon," Lariviere said. "Rob has been asked to develop a clear vision to maintain and advance the UO's competitive advantages in fundraising, facilities development and recruitment and retention of student-athletes and staff. He will insure that the athletics department remains financially self-sufficient, while at the same time promoting an environment that helps each student athlete to succeed in the classroom as well as the field of competition.

"This is a period of important growth and change for the athletics department. A new basketball arena will open within a year and additional improvements are on the way for other athletics facilities. It will be Rob's role to not only oversee and promote future advances for the department, but to nurture the individual programs that will fill those outstanding venues."

Mullens (7/19/69) went to school at West Virginia University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in sport management. He and his wife, Jane, have two sons - Cooper and Tanner.

Richard Lariviere

university president
two years at Oregon
University of Iowa, 1972, Penn, '78

Richard Lariviere became president of the University of Oregon on July 1, 2009. He served as executive vice chancellor and provost at the University of Kansas from 2006 to 2009. As the chief academic officer at the University of Kansas, Lariviere oversaw the reorganization of the KU graduate school and the School of Fine Arts, as well as the expansion of KU's School of Pharmacy.

Before arriving in Kansas, Lariviere was dean of the College of Liberal Arts at the University of Texas at Austin from 1999 to 2006. During his tenure heading the nation's largest college of liberal arts, the college's rate of external research funding doubled and more than 230 faculty members were hired.

Lariviere's scholarly roots extend around the world. After earning his bachelor's degree in the history of religions from the University of Iowa in 1972, Lariviere and his wife Janis traveled to India for the first time. Lariviere eventually built an impressive academic career around the country's languages, histories, religions and culture. In 1978, he earned his doctorate in Sanskrit from the University of Pennsylvania. While he has published articles and several books on Indian legal history, he has also tackled subjects ranging from religion in India to matrimonial remedies for women in classical Hindu law. He reads eight languages and speaks French and Hindi. He has conducted research in London, Oxford, Calcutta, Poona Kathmandu, Tokyo, Beijing, Lahore, Munich, Colombo, and Madras, as well as a host of smaller cities in India.

Lariviere is a Fellow of the Institute of Innovation, Creativity & Capital in Austin, a life member of the Council on Foreign Relations, a fellow of the Royal Asiatic Society of Great Britain, a life member of the American Oriental Society, and a founding member of the Society for Design and Process Science. He had a successful career as a consultant for American and Indian companies in information technology and Business Process Outsourcing. He has also served on corporate boards in the IT industry.

Lariviere's wife, Janis Worcester Lariviere, has worked in science education at the University of Kansas and the University of Texas. The couple has a daughter, Anne Elizabeth, who graduated from Barnard College and teaches elementary school in New York City.
